ANTI-GREELEY MOVEMENT.

Democrats Taking Steps to Prevent Indorsement at Baltimore.

Another Convention Probable.

CINCINNATI, June 26.—A confidential circular has been quietly distributed here to-day among Democrats and Liberal Republicans opposed to the nomination of Greeley at Baltimore. The circular has no name appended, that being left blank, to be filled by the party distributing them. The exact source is not apparent, but it is rumored that a considerable number came from Louisville to-day, and it is known that some have been filled up, and directed to Blanton Duncan, of Kentucky, in Baltimore. The circular is marked "confidential," and is as follows:

"DEAR SIR: The Cincinnati movement, conceived in corruption, has so far spread its malign influences that prompt measures alone can save the Democratic party from disbandment and desertion. It is impossible for the village politicians who have seized the party machinery to succeed in anything but their avowed object to disband the party. As a means of future usefulness the Democratic organization should be preserved, and as the Greeleyites announce their intention to bolt and to support their candidates if they do not secure their object, it is now the duty of true Democrats to prepare for severance from such politicians, and by throwing off the elements of discord to make the organization purer, stronger and better in the future. The honest men of the country will be attracted to that party which plants itself upon principles. The Cincinnati Convention was a self-constituted body of leaders without followers. Half of them have bolted. It requires only one bold, prompt action to send dismay into the ranks of scheming politicians who seek plunder and office, that is, to prepare now for a Democratic nomination at all hazards. You are earnestly requested to attend the Baltimore Convention, and to secure the presence there of at least two prominent true Democrats from each Congressional district of your State. If the Baltimore Convention is so lost to reason, so shameless in total abandonment of principles as to go outside of the party for life long opponents as their nominees, such action is not binding, and it remains for true Democrats then and there to organize another convention without, and to nominate tried and trustworthy standard bearers. As between such men and the radicals there cannot be any danger that the mass will rally in support of true Democrats, leaving the politicians who have endeavored to disrupt the party as solitary and stranded leaders without a follower. Immediate preparation for this action may bring politicians to their senses. Please report to me without delay the names and address of those who will attend for the purpose indicated and also their address in Baltimore."

NEW YORK, June 26.—The following call was issued here to-day: "A conference having been had on the part of many Democrats of the city and State of New York, who are opposed to the nomination of Horace Greeley at Baltimore, and who will not support him if nominated, to take such measures as principle, duty and self-respect demand, in view of such event, it is deemed a most practicable method of giving expression to such opposition to invite all Democrats in every part of the Union who are willing to co-operate in such a movement, and can personally attend, to be present at Baltimore on the 8th of July, to confer together and take such action as there may be deemed advisable." The call is signed by Joseph R. Flanders and John F. Vanallen.

NEWS SUMMARY.

BY TELEGRAPH.

The locomotive works and machine shops at Paterson, New Jersey, have been closed on account of a strike of some six hundred men. The closing of these shops throws nearly three thousand men out of work. The employers will not open their shops until the men are ready to resume work on the old basis.

At Layfayette, Ind., yesterday a fire destroyed the machine and blacksmith shops of the L., N and A. C. Railroad. There were five locomotives in the shops undergoing repairs, all of which were badly damaged. The buildings were frame and of a temporary character. The loss will amount to $50,000, partly covered by insurance.

The Supreme Court of Tennessee has rendered a decision in the contested election case of Curry against Wright, which has been on trial for two years, involving the sheriffalty of the county in which Memphis is situated. Curry, the Republican candidate, contested the election of Wright on the ground of fraudulent returns, which the court sustained.

Near Cleveland, Ohio, yesterday a tavern keeper named Bennett attempted to murder his wife and then killed himself by cutting his throat. Cause, whisky.

POLITICAL.

Mr. Groesbeck Will Stand by the Action of the Baltimore Convention.

CINCINNATI, June 26.—It is well understood here and it is certain that Mr. Groesbeck will show respect to the action of the Democratic National Convention, and will not antagonize it by accepting the nomination made at New York or by any other nomination made outside of the regular Democratic Convention.

Illinois Liberal Republican Convention—Letter from Carl Schurz.

SPRINGFIELD, June 26.—The Liberal Republican State Convention met at noon to-day. Governor Palmer was chosen temporary chairman and delivered an address. After the appointment of usual committees, a letter from Hon. Carl Schurz was read, as follows:

"ST. LOUIS, June 25.—My Dear Sir: I regret to say that it will be impossible for me to attend the Convention of the Liberals of Illinois to-morrow. I arrived here last night from the East, and find an accumulation of business which demands my immediate attention. Besides I desire to address my constituents here before taking part in the campaign elsewhere. You have my earnest wishes in your endeavors to rally for united action all the elements of the opposition to that system of policy which is now controlling the government and people of this republic, and which not unappropriately has been called "Grantism." [Applause.] It is time that the people of the North and South be once more bound together by the inspiring consciousness of a common nationality, of common rights and of common duties, and to this end it is necessary that the traditional barriers be broken down, and that the policy of force by which the embers of civil strife are assiduously fanned, and the bitter feelings of past effects are kept alive for partisan advantages, give way to the moral agencies of conciliation and fraternal intercourse, without which our republican system cannot long endure. [Applause.] It is time that the despotism of party spirit is broken, which, in the shape of personal government, rules our national legislation, and the present organization of office holders, debauched with corruption, demoralizes and subjugates public opinion and stands in the way of every true and thorough reform. And to this end it is necessary that the embodiment of real despotism, the present administration, be defeated in its efforts to continue in power, and that thus a free field be opened for a reformatory movement, untrammelled by selfish partisan control. [Applause.] Whether we be able to accomplish all we desire or not, we certainly can accomplish this, if for that purpose we unite in an energetic effort; and our success will be a great step in the right direction. Although I cannot be with you to-morrow, I hope to be able to co-operate with you to that end in the course of the present canvass.

"Very respectfully,
"C. SCHURZ."

Mr. Wentworth moved that the conference committee notify the Democratic State Convention that a Committee of Conference had been appointed, and the Committee authorized to confer with a committee to be appointed by the Democratic Convention to promote the object for which both bodies had assembled.

On motion the Cincinnati platform was unanimously adopted. The Cincinnati candidates were indorsed amid great enthusiasm. The Convention then adjourned until three o'clock.

The Convention reassembled at three P. M., and permanently organized, retaining Gov't Palmer as Chairman. Cassius M. Clay was present and made a brief address. A State Central Committee was appointed, and the Convention adjourned until 7 P. M.

The Liberal Republican Convention reassembled in evening session at seven o'clock.

The Committee on Resolutions reported a platform, enunciating substantially the same doctrines as promulgated by the Cincinnati Liberal Convention.

A committee from the Democratic Convention reported that it had adopted the report of the conference committee.

An invitation to meet with the Democratic Convention was accepted, and the Convention adjourned for that purpose.

New Jersey Democratic Convention.

TRENTON, N. J., June 25.—The Democratic State Convention organized with Charles Haight, Greeleyite, as President, and then took a recess till afternoon. After recess Gov. Randolph was chosen permanent chairman of the State Committee. He made an address in which he said that the Convention would act wisely in not expressing any opinion as to the candidates at Baltimore. He said the recent conference at the Fifth Avenue Hotel was not a fiasco, but was held to ascertain whether it was practicable to unite all the elements of the opposition to Grant, as Greeley's nomination had not accomplished that desideratum. He believed, however, Greeley would be nominated at Baltimore, but he would only occupy the high office while the power would be again delegated to the people.

Resolutions were adopted, among others this: "Resolved, That we pledge ourselves to abide by and support the nominees of the Democratic National Convention."

Illinois Democratic State Convention.

SPRINGFIELD, ILL., June 26.—The Democratic State Convention met in this city to-day, and organized with Hon. J. C. Allen as temporary chairman, and after the appointment of the usual committees adjourned till 2 P. M. On reassembling a representative from the Liberal Republican Convention was introduced, and announced the appointment by that body of a committee of conference, consisting of a delegate from each congressional district, to confer with a like committee from the Democratic Convention upon the questions of interest to the people of the State. The convention was then permanently organized with Hon. J. C. Allen as chairman. A committee of conference was appointed to meet with the committee of the Liberal Republicans.

A list of delegates to the Baltimore convention having been reported and accepted, it was moved that the Committee on Resolutions be instructed to report a resolution instructing the delegates to cast their votes for Greeley and Brown. This was adopted almost unanimously.

The Committee on Platform submitted resolutions indorsing the action of the Cincinnati convention and instructing the delegates to Baltimore accordingly, after which the convention adjourned to 7:30 P. M.

The Democratic State Convention reassembled at 7:30 P. M.

Gen. McClernand, from the committee of conference appointed by the Convention to meet a similar committee from the Liberal Republican Convention, here advanced to the platform and submitted the following ticket for State officers, as agreed upon by the joint conference committee: For Governor, Gustavus A. Koerner, of St. Clair; Lieutenant Governor, General Charles Black, of Champaign; Secretary of State, Edward Rummell, of Peoria; Auditor of State, Daniel O'Hara, of Cook; State Treasurer, Chas. H. Lanfair, of Sangamon; Attorney General, Lawrence Weldon, of McLean; Clerk of Supreme Court, first grand division, R. A. D. Wilbanks, of Jefferson, Clerk of Supreme Court, second division, David A. Brown.

Of the nominees on the State ticket, those for Governor, Secretary of State and Attorney General are Liberal Republicans. Those for Lieutenant Governor, Auditor and Treasurer are Democrats. The candidates for Clerk of the Supreme Court in the first and second divisions are Democrats. The candidate in the third division is a Liberal Republican.

On motion a committee of three was then appointed by the President of the Convention to proceed to the hall where the Liberal Republican Convention was in session and invite that body to join this Convention.

George W. Stipp, of Lasalle, offered the following:

Resolved, That the delegates elected by this Convention to represent them in the National Democratic Convention at Baltimore are hereby instructed to cast their votes for Greeley and Brown as Presidential candidates.

The resolution was unanimously adopted.

The committee appointed to invite the Liberal Republican Convention to unite with this convention here appeared and reported that the members of the Liberal Convention were now on their way to the hall. Immediately afterward Governor Palmer, President of the Liberal Convention, appeared arm-in-arm with Governor Koerner, and advanced to the platform, where he was met by Gov. Allen, President of the Convention. Gov. Palmer then announced that the Liberal Republican Convention had heartily indorsed the nominations reported by the joint committee of conference. Gov. Allen said he desired to meet the advance of the Liberal Republicans in the same spirit in which they were made.

Governor. Koerner was then introduced, and in a brief speech accepted the nomination and returned his thanks for the honor conferred upon him.

The respective chairmen of the Democratic and Liberal Republican committees of conference to select an electoral ticket reported that the conference had been unable to agree, and suggested that the matter be referred to the Democratic and Liberal Republican State Central Committees. The recommendation of the committee was adopted.

The convention then adjourned sine die.

Ohio "Libe als" Generous.

CLEVELAND, O., June 26.—The Liberal Republican State Central Committee held another meeting this morning, every district in the State except one being represented. An Executive Committee was appointed, with Gen. R. Brinkerhoff, of Mansfield, as Chairman. Although some of the leading Democrats expressed a desire to concede the nomination of Supreme Judge or Secretary of State to the Liberal Republicans, it was decided by the committee that they did not wish any position on the State ticket.

The Georgia Democracy.

ATLANTA, June 26.—The Georgia Democratic State Convention met to-day and selected delegates to the Baltimore Convention. Among the resolutions adopted was the following: "Resolved, That in our opinion the delegates to the Baltimore Convention should go unmolested by instructions, and should act by all their rights before them as they deem best for the good of the party and the welfare of the country."

GOVERNOR GEARY has appointed George H. Thurston a commissioner for the improvement of the Ohio river. The commissioners are in session in Cincinnati now.

WASHINGTON.

GREELEY'S LATEST RECRUIT

Bradley Johnson, Ex-Prison Pen Commander.

Ratification Meeting Letters.

Confidence in Grant's Re-Election.

German-Democratic-Greeley Convention.

Special Dispatch to the Commercial.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 26, 1872.

Bradley Johnson's Views of the Southern Democracy.

Ex-Confederate General Bradley Johnson, who commanded the prison pen at Salisbury, North Carolina, has just given in his adhesion to Greeley as follows: "In the South the Democratic party, as a party, is dead. The real old stagers, men who swallowed the bate, hook and all, have almost disappeared from Southern politics. As an illustration he said he was perhaps the youngest type of original Democrats now living in that territory. In place of the Democratic party there has sprung up an organization which has for its object the retention in its own hands of minor State offices, such as clerks of courts, district magistrates, sheriffs and deputies. In other words, the members of this party desire simply to control the local governments, and manage their own domestic affairs. Its leaders are young men who have no affiliation with the Democratic party, never voted with it in their lives, and know and care but little about its principles. These men are the real leaders in the South. They know that the Democratic party of the North have endeavored, time after time, to secure the control of the government, and have always been defeated. Their defeats have been followed by a train of misfortunes for the South. This is the party to be consulted in the South, and without which it is needless for Democrats to hope for success. If both sides guarantee to them their local government, and arrangement of their domestic affairs, they will cling to those whom they consider most reliable. This party is heart and soul with Greeley and Brown, and for that reason the Democratic Convention will be compelled to nominate them."

Letter from Gerrett Smith.

Gerrett Smith sent the following letter to the managers of the ratification meeting here last night.

PETERSBORO, June 21, 1872.

Chairman Committee of Arrangements:

DEAR SIR—I have your letter honoring me with an invitation to address the National ratification meeting on the 25th inst. Deeply do I regret that my voice is so impaired that I cannot comply with your invitation. Be assured that I shall do what little I can to keep out of power the bad party which sympathized with our enemy in time of war, and which is doing worse now in shielding those infernal associations that whip and hang innocent negros and whites who stand by them.

Respectfully yours,
GERRETT SMITH.

Fred Douglass Never Better Satisfied.

Fred Douglass wrote as follows:

ROCHESTER, N. Y., June 22, 1872.—DEAR SIR: I most deeply regret that it will be impossible for me to be one of the speakers on the occasion of the grand ratification meeting to be held in Washington on Tuesday night. Few things could be more in accord with my feelings and wishes than to participate in this first popular demonstration in the Capital in favor of the election of Grant and Wilson. I was never better satisfied with our candidates than now, and never had higher hopes of their election than now. Success to your proposed ratification meeting. Very truly yours,

FRED DOUGLASS.

Conkling Confident.

Senator Conkling writes: "My belief is that Grant and Wilson will receive more electoral votes than have ever been given to any President and Vice President, with one exception, for thirty years, and that New York will give them a larger majority than any other State. President Grant is stronger with the people now than he was four years ago. He gains greatly from the scandalous assaults made upon him and from the want of confidence on all sides in the movement against him."

German-Democratic Pressure for Greeley.

Baltimore papers announce a German-Democratic Convention, representing all States in the Union, to meet in Baltimore on July 7th, two days previous to the regular Democratic Convention, in order to influence the latter in favor of Greeley, and to counteract the influence of such Germans as Ottendorffer, Daenzer and Stallo, who are inimical to Greeley.

Justice After Many Days.

Yesterday, in the Baltimore city court, John Cole, colored, obtained a verdict for three hundred dollars against the son of his former master. Cole in 1864 was a boy in the service of William Gent, and was held by virtue of an indenture of apprenticeship. Mr. Gent had a son, a young man liable to military duty, who was drafted, but had no particular desire to go into the army. Mr. Gent desiring to shield his son from the hardships of a military campaign, took the colored lad Jacob Cole, and exercising his authority of master over him, had him mustered into the service of the United States as a substitute for his son. When the war was over the boy by his next friend brought suit against Mr. Gent for damages and yesterday obtained a verdict.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 26, 1872.

THE TREATY AGAIN.

When information was received, last week, that the Geneva tribunal had decided that the claims for indirect damages could not come before the Arbitrators, gentlemen occupying high official positions here considered that this was in effect a settlement of the question, and terminated the pending negotiations relative to the additional article to the Treaty of Washington. This view, however, was based on the supposition that the decision, to be formally announced at a subsequent meeting, will be in accordance with the repeatedly declared position of this government, namely: that these claims would not be withdrawn, and that they were presented not as claims for which specific demand was made, but as losses and injuries consequent on acts complained of, and necessarily to be taken into equitable consideration in the settlement and adjudication of the differences submitted to the tribunal. In the diplomatic language used, the decision of what was equitable in the premises the United States sincerely and without reservation surrender to the arbitrament designated by the treaty.

The additional article to the Treaty of Washington, as just published, is imperfect, the following paragraph having been accidentally omitted: "Whereas, the Government of the United States has contended that said indirect claims were included in the treaty," &c.

The following is the vote on the adoption of the amended article:

Yeas—Senators Alcorn, Anthony, Bayard, Boreman, Buckingham, Caldwell, Cameron, Chandler, Clayton, Cragin, Ferry, of Conn.; Ferry, of Mich.; Flanagan, Frelinghuysen, Gilbert, Hamilton, of Md.; Hamlin, Harlan, Hill, Hitchcock, Johnson, Kellogg, Logan, Morrill, of Me.; Morrill, of Vt.; Morton, Norwood, Nye, Patterson, Pomeroy, Pool, Pratt, Ramsey, Ransom, Schurz, Scott, Sherman, Stockton, Vickers, West, Wilson, Windom and Wright—43.

Nays—Senators Casserly, Corbett, Davis, of W. Va.; Edmunds, Hamilton, of Texas; Kelly, Sumner and Tipton—8.

Absent or not voting—Messrs. Ames, Blair, Brownlow, Carpenter, Cole, Conkling, Cooper, Davis, of Kentucky; Fenton, Goldthwaite, Howe, Lewis, Osborn, Rice, Robertson, Saulsbury, Sawyer, Spencer, Sprague, Stevenson, Stewart, Thurman and Trumbull—23.

BRAZIL would seem to have its Bourbons and reactionists, just as our own country has them. The latest news from that nation states that the Chamber of Deputies has suddenly been dissolved in consequence of the opposition in it arising from vindictive feelings against the President of the Council, who so nobly carried out the emancipatory measures of last season. He was, it seems, prepared with yet other great measures of progress and reform, but the Blairs and Voorhees of the Chamber (we don't know their Spanish names) opposed him with such pestilent pertinacity that he preferred to terminate the session abruptly and with his colleagues go before the country appealing to their services in the past and to the great programme of reforms mapped out for the future. The election takes place in September, and in December the General Assembly again meets. Of course the party of progress will be successful, just as the Republican party in this country will be successful in November. Brazil caught the high infection of freedom from our own example, and will bring no discredit either on her teacher or herself. Since, however, it is a foregone conclusion that the opposition here will have "to walk Spanish" when the tug comes, unless they withdraw in the meantime, it is respectfully suggested that they endeavor to prolong their lease of life somewhat by offering their services to the obstructionists of Brazil. Such a reinforcement would undoubtedly be hailed by them with great satisfaction.

FROM BEAVER.

Commencement Concert—Musical Success—Delighted Audience—Examinations Continued—Corner Stone of New Building Laid—Imposing Ceremonies, &c., &c.

A large and elegant audience greeted the young ladies of the college last night at commencement concert. These annual entertainments have always had a high reputation, not only from the character of the music performed, but also from the superior excellence of the performers. The one given on last evening is pronounced the finest concert ever held in Beaver. The great number of visitors from Meadville, Wheeling, Brownsville and Pittsburgh, added to the home listeners, made up a brilliant gathering indeed. Perhaps one more thoroughly versed in music than "Rusticus" professes to be, may give your readers a critical account of this fine affair, which certainly reflected great credit upon Prof. Beuter and Mrs. A. S. Taylor.

Tuesday afternoon's examinations began at two o'clock with Prof. Dunlap's grammar class B. Miss Burnett's class in physiology won the favor of all the visitors by the excellence of the examination. It was of itself a demonstration that the practical as well as the ornamental has a place in the college studies. The botany class was taught by Prof. Townsend. Miss Ida Harden, of Wheeling, and Miss Ray Gist, of Wellsburg, Va., were the essayists. Miss Annie Beacom gave a humorous recitation. The music was by Misses Morton, Raif, Smith and Foster and vocal class No. 1.

Wednesday morning Miss Woodroffe took charge of arithmetic class B; Prof. Townsend of the algebra class No. 1; Miss Magee of the class in natural theology. The examinations were all of a high order, creditable alike to teachers and scholars. Miss Emma Patterson, of Bridgeport, Ohio, and Miss Jennie Warren, of Beaver, were the essayists of to-day. Master John Locke was the declaimer, and the Misses Shugart and French the musicians. Miss Ada Morton read the paper, full of spice and wit. This college newspaper is an institution. Through this means the young ladies tell their grievances, and correct faults that might not otherwise be mentioned.

The corner stone of the new college building was laid this afternoon with imposing ceremonies, not by the Masons, but by the Odd Fellows, Occidental Lodge 720, of Beaver. A large concourse of people witnessed the depositing of the box into the stone, and the laying of the stone into its proper place. The box contained a history of the institution, copies of catalogues, copies of the county newspapers, and also of the COMMERCIAL of yesterday and to-day. The following ode was sung by the assembly:

ODE.

Deep in the quarries of the stone,
Amid vast heaps of other rock;
In darkness hid, to art unknown,
We found this rude and shapeless block.
Now shaped by art, its roughness gone,
And fit this noble work to grace,
We lay it here, a corner stone,
Chosen and sure, in proper place.

Within this stone there lies concealed
What future ages may disclose,
The sacred truths, to us revealed
By Him who fell by ruthless foes.
On Him this corner stone we build,
To Him this edifice erect;
And still, until this work's fulfilled,
May Heaven the workman's ways direct.

Dr. Dempsey then addressed the citizens, and the ceremonies were ended. The New Brighton brass band turned out in full force and discoursed excellent music.

This evening the Alumnæ Association reunion is to be held. A large number of the former graduates are here, and much pleasure is anticipated from the meeting to-night.

JEFFERSON COLLEGE.

Reunion of the Graduating Class of 1862—An Interesting Occasion.

Special Correspondence of the Pittsburgh Commercial.

CANONSBURG, June 26th, 1872.

The class which graduated at Jefferson College in the year 1862 held their reunion here yesterday afternoon. The meeting being called to order, the Rev. B. F. Woodburn, of Allegheny City, was chosen chairman, and Jerome Lee, Esq., of Mansfield, Secretary. The roll of the class was called, with the view of hearing the history of each member during the last ten years. It was found that eight out of the fifty members who composed the class when it left the college have died. The remaining forty-two gave their own history, either personally or by letter, and it was worthy of notice that nearly all of these are professional men. After all the reports were heard, it was resolved that this class should meet again in Canonsburg ten years hence, and a committee was appointed to report at that time and arrange a programme for the occasion.

The following resolution was passed with but one dissenting voice: "Resolved, That we, the members of the class of 1862, desire to place on record our deep regret at the removal of Jefferson College from Canonsburg, and hope at some future day to see this college again in the same position which she held for the last three-quarters of a century."

While this meeting was being held some of the ladies of the town prepared a supper in the room known as Prayer Hall, to which this class and the alumni living in Canonsburg were invited. Pleasant, indeed, was the sight of the tables so tastefully arranged with food and flowers. That all enjoyed themselves was evident from their happy looks and cheerful voices. After supper quite a number of entertaining speeches were made, which showed how much pleasure it gave the old graduates to come back to their old college town, and how much pleased the citizens of this place were to have them here again. At the request of the class, Rev. Dr. Smith, their old Greek Professor, closed the meeting by asking God's blessing to rest upon them.

STATE POLITICS.

The Philadelphia Republican nominations were made on Tuesday under the Crawford county system, the people showing their preferences by a direct vote. The Congressional nominations were as follows: First District, D. Houghton; Second District, Charles O'Neil; Third District, Leonard Myers; Fourth District, William D. Kelly; Fifth District, Al. Harmer. The proceedings were quiet, and the experiment is regarded as a success, though it is conceded the system will not prevent the holding back of election returns and false counting.

A DAY or two ago a meeting of between four and five hundred of the leading manufacturers and employers of New York city was held, to take into consideration the subject of "strikes," and their own interests as affected by them. It was stated on that occasion that for some time past labor has cost more in that city than at any other point in the country, in consequence of which a large number of important manufacturing concerns had been driven from the city; and, further, that as a reduction of the hours of labor must necessarily increase the cost of living, it would be requisite, in order that mechanics might live as comfortably as they have been in the habit of doing, to pay them more for eight hours' labor than it had been customary to pay them for ten—which, owing to the fact that the increased cost of production was a direct tax on the producer, they were wholly unable to do. Such facts as these are worthy the thoughtful consideration of workingmen everywhere. Wherever a general and prolonged strike occurs, the effect not only entails a loss upon the operatives that a year's industry even under the attainment of the objects of the strike can hardly compensate for, but it also involves a corresponding diminution and destruction of general business, and hence of general prosperity. There was once a man who killed a valuable ox merely in order to make himself a pair of raw-hide boots. But he was not wise.

Crops in Beaver County—Ravages of the Potatoe Bug.

Special Correspondence of the Pittsburgh Commercial.

FREEDOM, June 26, 1872.

The late rains have greatly benefited the wheat crop throughout Beaver county, and the general belief is, that there will be about half a crop in the county.

The prospect for fruit is very good, especially as to apples and peaches, the trees being as full as they can hold. A bug known as the Colorado bug, has made its appearance, and is doing great damage among the potatoes, by eating the vines down to the ground. They seem to have a special liking for the "Early Rose" potatoe, leaving all other varieties for future use. I inclose a few of the bugs, and if they do not gnaw out, you can examine them.

It is said that paper was imported from Corea into Japan as early as A. D. 280, and that about A. D. 610 the Japanese learned to make their own paper from the paper mulberry, of better quality than that which they had previously imported.

Very Important to Grocers.

Having an extensive stock of teas and coffees in bond in this city, we are preparing to fill promptly on and immediately after July 1st, all orders we may receive at prices to correspond with the reduction of duty occurring at that time.

Believing there will be a prolonged delay in getting goods out of bond in the East, as all must be re-weighed ere leaving there, and also from the fact that the unusual amount of freight will greatly exceed the shipping capacity of railroads on and for some time after July 1st, we have armed ourselves with a large stock to enable parties to avoid the inconvenience, loss and delay which will be experienced by those depending on supplies from seaboard cities, and would therefore request dealers to visit us at our office and examine samples and prices.

TO ADVERTISERS.

Value of the Commercial as an Advertising Medium.

OFFICE OF KENNEDY & CO.,
CORNER FIRST AVE. AND WOOD ST.,
PITTSBURGH, June 25, 1872.

To the Editor of the Pittsburgh Commercial:

It gives us pleasure to be able to bear testimony to the great worth of the COMMERCIAL as an advertising medium. On June 1st, 1872, we inserted a column local notice of Dr. Radcliffe's great remedy, Seven Seals or Golden Wonder, of which we are sole proprietors and manufacturers, and although the medicine had been liberally advertised and extensively sold by agents in nearly every section of the United States, yet our sales have since been largely increased, and we have received orders from localities we had not hitherto been able to reach. Upon investigating the causes which led to this highly satisfactory result, we found the increase in our business mainly attributable to the publication of our advertisement in your valuable paper. Yours, most respectfully,

KENNEDY & CO.

THE FOURTH OF JULY.

Citizens' Meeting at the Mayor's Office.

Yesterday afternoon a meeting of citizens was held at the Mayor's office to take action in relation to the proposed celebration of the completion of Penn avenue in conjunction with the anniversary of Independence day.

His Honor Mayor Blackmore was called to the chair and Mr. W. K. McClintock acted as Secretary.

The Mayor read the call for the meeting and stated the object. Dr. A. Arthurs moved the appointment of a committee on resolutions. Adopted.

Jos. M. Gazzam, Esq., chairman of the committee reported the following:

Recognizing the importance to our city of the completion of a grand central avenue, which opens up the beautiful East Liberty valley and affords to our citizen a much neater drive; feeling also that improvements should be encouraged and stimulated in this day of progress; wishing to manifest our appreciation of the efforts of our townsmen by whom this enterprise was originated and carried out; to promote the general good, and desiring also to celebrate the anniversary of American independence, therefore;

Resolved, As the sense of this meeting, that we heartily approve of the plan proposed for a joint celebration on July 4th, of the completion of the Penn avenue improvement, and the day on which we became free as a nation, and that we will do all in our power to make the occasion a success.

The resolution passed and the meeting adjourned.

Narrow Escape from Drowning.

About five o'clock last evening two boys, named Frank Burt and Charles Willison, narrowly escaped being drowned in the Allegheny river, near the suspension bridge, on the north side. The lads, in company with a number of their companions, were playing on a raft at the place mentioned, when Burt accidentally fell into the river. Being unable to swim, Willison jumped into the river to rescue him, but unfortunately the sinking lad threw his arms around the neck of his would be deliverer and thus disabled him from swimming to shore.

It was evident to the crowd that had gathered by this time that the two would be drowned unless assistance reached them, and two or three men waded toward them, but after going a short distance found that the river was beyond their depth, and not being able to swim, returned. The struggling lads were observed by a man named Frederick Engel, residing at No. 31 Fourth street, Allegheny, who was driving a spring wagon on the Suspension bridge on his way to Allegheny. He immediately put his horse on a gallop, and there being no other vehicle in front, soon reached the end of the bridge, when he hurried to the river, jumped in, and at the last moment brought the boys triumphantly to shore. Had the boys remained in the water a moment or two longer they would undoubtedly have been drowned. Mr. Engel was complimented by a large number of citizens on his heroic conduct. It is needless to add here that the authorities of the bridge will not prosecute Mr. Engel for "driving beyond a walk," on this occasion.

Heavy Castings.

The Atlas Works, in the Twelfth ward, have just finished another immense anvil block, for the Pittsburgh Locomotive Works, in Allegheny, which they will haul over to-day, crossing the Allegheny river by the Sixth street suspension bridge. The casting weighs eighteen tons, and the weight will be distributed on three pairs of wheels. Some two years ago, a similar casting was hauled over the same route, on two pairs of wheels, and considerable difficulty was experienced, as the wheels crushed in the iron culverts at the crossings, and made indentations in the cobble stone pavements at several points. It was also apprehended that the suspensions bridge would be injured by the weight, but this fear proved groundless. Indeed our bridges—or some of them at least—have shown a greater degree of strength than it was thought they possessed, and by a proper distribution of the weight the heaviest castings now made here can be safely moved over them. A few days ago Messrs. Robinson, Rea & Co. had hauled over the Birmingham bridge plates weighing between eighteen and twenty tons. In view of the fact that the necessities of manufactures, and the improvements in the methods of making and handling large masses of metal, will continue to increase the weight of certain kinds of machinery, the bridges hereafter to be built should be constructed with a view to sustaining much heavier masses.

A Young Man from the Country.

A young man named Wirtz was riding on a street car yesterday, when he asked the driver where he could get a man to show him the objects of interest about the city. The driver referred him to a man on a passing car, and the two struck a bargain. They first proceeded to a drinking saloon on Smithfield street, and while there Wirtz alleges he was robbed of fifty-six dollars by his new friend. The victim then visited the Mayor's office, and the detectives were furnished with a description of the supposed thief. He was arrested by officers Cupples and Messner in a saloon on Liberty street and locked up for a hearing. He gives his name as Joseph Hern, and denies being the party in demand. He will have a hearing this morning.

G. A. R. Encampment at Gettysburg.

A large delegation of the G. A. R. from Pittsburgh will leave here on the Pacific Express, at 1:30 A. M. on Monday, July 1st, to attend the State Encampment at Gettysburg. Tickets at reduced rates may be obtained at the Fifth avenue ticket office of the Pennsylvania Railroad, until 9:00 o'clock P. M. on Saturday. As no excursion tickets will be sold at Union Depot, and as the Fifth avenue office will be closed on Sunday, it is important that those who propose attending should procure their tickets on or before Saturday.

Western University Alumni.

The semi-annual meeting of the "Alumni Association" will be held at the University on Friday afternoon, June 28th, at half past four o'clock. Every Alumnus should be present. The "annual dinner" will be served at three o'clock P. M. of the same day. The committee has endeavored to reach every Alumnus with an invitation to the dinner, and desire to say, if any one has been overlooked it was unintentional, and he can still procure a ticket at the University or at No. 32 Wood street.

A REPRESENTATIVE of the COMMERCIAL yesterday visited the extensive establishment of Messrs. G. N. Hoffstott & Co., wholesale dealers in leather, hides and oils, No. 299 Liberty street, and found them fully prepared with a large stock of everything in their line to meet any demands that may be made upon them. This firm occupy the entire building in which they are located, which is filled with every description of leather and all kinds of tanner's oils. Among the many varieties of leather in which they deal will be found hemlock and oak sole leather finished harness leather French calf, and kip and domestic calf, kip and upper leather.

This firm have recently been appointed sole agents here for J. B. Hoyt & Co.'s celebrated patent stretched and patent jointed white oak tanned leather belting, of which they now have a full stock on hand, and which they are prepared to sell at factory prices. They also keep a full supply of excelsior lace leather. This house is one of the oldest and most reliable of any in the city, the senior member, Mr. Hoffstot, having been engaged in business for over twenty years, while Mr. J. G. Brant, the junior partner, has been connected with the house for over ten years. Their business is quite extensive, their orders coming from all points both east and west. We are satisfied that dealers can do no better anywhere than by procuring their supplies at this house.

THE attention of advertisers is directed to the card of Messrs. Griffin & Hoffman, advertising agents, No. 4 South street, Baltimore, which appears elsewhere this morning. Their's is one of the most reliable advertising agencies in the country, and they are possessed of the most ample facilities for meeting the wants of every class of advertisers, as will readily be seen by reference to their advertisement. Our Pittsburgh merchants and manufacturers are offered special inducements, certain of their lists having been prepared with special reference to their requirements. Their advertisement should be carefully read by all who would advertise judiciously and economically.

The Daily Commercial.

THURSDAY, JUNE 27, 1872.

The "confidential" circular which appeared in Cincinnati yesterday, and which is herewith printed, taken in connection with the position of the New York World, Journal of Commerce, Chicago Times, and other Democratic papers, suggests some interesting possibilities; such, for instance, in the event of Greeley's nomination at Baltimore, as another convention and a straight Democratic ticket, a ticket for which straight-out Democrats can vote. That the suggestions of the circular will have the cordial approval of a large body of Democrats cannot be doubted.

In 1859 the Richmond (Va.) papers published an advertisment offering twenty-five hundred dollars reward for the head of Horace Greeley, and the offer has never been withdrawn. The same papers now support him for the Presidency. Whether the price promised for his capture is to be divided among the Democrats who effected it, or whether it is to be paid to himself on the ground of personal surrender, has not yet been determined. The seizure has been made, however, to the great sorrow of hundreds and thousands of the old abolitionist's friends, who mourn that so cruel a fate should have overtaken him.

The other day we inquired what was the significance of the fact that the deposed Tammany Ring were so active for Greeley, and why persons of this kind generally espoused his cause with so much eagerness? No authoritative reply from the Greeley camp being forthcoming or probable, people will have to place their own construction on this most undoubted fact. They may be helped to a conclusion perhaps by the particular fact that "Boss" Tweed, the greatest thief of all the tribe of Tammany, holds frequent consultations with Mr. Greeley and the managers of his cause, and with Ben. Wood, whose notoriety is scarcely less odious, appears to have a large share in directing the Greeley campaign. Again we ask: what is the significance of these things?

That Forney is laboring in disguise to defeat Grant, is well understood abroad as well as at home. For instance, the Chicago Tribune says: "Forney's labors in behalf of Greeley are daily growing more and more energetic," this being the only interpretation which that paper can put on his labors in behalf of Buckalew. "Mr. Forney told me," testifies McClure before the Evans investigation committee, "that * * * there was an agreement of some kind drawn up at the time the resolution (appointing Evans State Agent) was passed, and named certain sums which he had been informed were set apart; one was $5,000 to the State Guard, another was $10,000 to the Philadelphia Press, another $10,000 to the Washington Chronicle." Hartranft having broken up this little arrangement, and exposed the swindlers, the milk in the cocoanut can be seen without artificial aid.

Notwithstanding the fact that, as the time for the assembling of the Baltimore Convention approaches, it becomes more and more difficult to remedy the error of the Cincinnati Convention, the number of those who do not propose to submit to it all the while increases. The New York Staats Zeitung, which bears the same relation to the German Democracy that the World and the Chicago Times hold to the English speaking portion of that organization, says the necessity of substituting another candidate in place of Mr. Greeley is absolute—defies anybody to deny the impossibility of his uniting the elements of the opposition, or the fact that there are other men who can, and characterizes the proposed indorsement of the Liberal candidate at Baltimore as infamy or lunacy, which the people will assuredly "damn." This is strong language, but neither it, nor the defiant protest of the other papers named, will be able to change the course of events. Mr. Greeley will be indorsed. The only question is as to the number of Democrats who will refuse to eat boiled owl and affect to consider it spring chicken. From present appearances there will be an army of them.

Wheat being the greatest food staple of the world, considerable general interest always attaches to its position in the market, and to the prospects of the crop. The Department of Agriculture has now in press a report giving exhaustive wheat statistics based upon the latest returns from all parts of the country, from which it is estimated that the yield of the present season will be two hundred and twenty million bushels, against two hundred and thirty million bushels last year. This estimate is considered by many to be too low, however, the increased acreage and excellent crops of certain parts of the country being relied on to balance the shortages of other sections. In the great western markets the tendency of prices is considerably downward, indicating that rates are adjusting themselves on the basis of an anticipated full supply. It is predicted by careful abservers that winter wheat will range next month from $1 25 to $1 50, and spring wheat from $1 20 to $1 25, and that in August spring will range at 95c to $1; rates which are not expected to vary much during September and October, for the reason that the immense California crop will pour itself upon the market should it show a tendency to advance, and thus again cut down prices. All things considered, therefore, there seems to be no ground for anxiety concerning the important question of breadstuff supplies.

The Cincinnati Commercial sardonically inquires why, since the effect of the late speech of Senator Sumner is said to have been precisely of an opposite nature to that which was intended by its author, the Republican party does not issue it as a campaign document? There is no doubt that Mr. Sumner will next winter have the profound satisfaction of knowing that the tirade in question materially contributed to the re-election of President Grant, but that is no reason why the Republican party should make itself particeps criminis in an offense against good morals and good taste by assisting in the circulation of a document which violates both. Moreover, it would hardly be wise policy in that party to do for itself that which the Democracy is doing for it. When your enemy is making a palpable mistake it is foolish to interfere with him. Only a comparatively small portion of the Tribune's new constituency will be able to spell their way through the dreary phillipic, while hundreds and thousands of them will be compelled to resort to the assistance of Republicans for explanation as to what its turgid and stilted phrases mean: so that, as the Commercial doubtless sees, the great Liberal organ, which, it is understood, has the document in stereotyped form, with press capacity to fill unlimited orders at nominal cost, is itself really furnishing the Republican "opportunity" over which our contemporary waxes so excruciatingly satirical.

Education—the diffusion of intelligence—is the great national regenerator and pacificator. Knowledge is power, and never more so than among the freedmen at present. The alphabet and the ballot box are going hand in hand at the South, one securing and protecting the other. Hardly anywhere in the history of the race is there shown such zeal for instruction and such readiness in learning as the colored citizens of this country have displayed since their emancipation. And yet there are to be found men claiming to be civilized to whom every negro school house is a standing grievance. The New York Tribune thinks the colored voters ought to support Greeley because the Democratic party has surrendered its hostility to equal rights regardless of color, and the Chicago Tribune says they ought to vote for him because he represents that element of reconciliation which is the first essential to order and safety for all. A prominent colored man, however, a graduate of a northern college, who is now principal of an academy in Texas, and elector at large in that State on the Republican ticket, writes that Mr. Greeley's friends in that locality are busying themselves with burning school houses, scourging the teachers and driving them out of the neighborhood, because they "teach niggers to write and read who ought to make crops"—by way, it is to be supposed, of illustrating how complete is the surrender of their hostility to equal rights, and the exceeding earnestness and sincerity of their desire to clasp hands with all men across the chasms cloven by the war. The columns of these papers teem with laudations of the Democracy. Is it impossible to find room for a few words of reprobation of this great outrage upon the rights of a people, and upon the civilization of the nineteenth century?

The old story. This time by a woman. For it was Phoebe Campbell that was hanged the other day in Canada. On the gallows she was supremely happy. Standing on the verge of eternity, her last breath was employed to proclaim that it was "the happiest day of her life." It would have been some other day hadn't she murdered a man, and she wouldn't have been half as happy.

In the Chicago grain market the corner in wheat has followed that in oats, and in the same way. Both have collapsed, almost simultaneously, and entailed great loss upon the persons who had essayed to engineer them through to a termination that should be profitable to themselves, without caring for the loss that others might suffer.

GREELEY AND THE DEMOCRATS.

Democrats Will Not Be Bound if He is Nominated, and Defeat Will Surely Follow.

The "World" Speaks Out.

The World at last is "reluctantly constrained to believe that indorsement of Greeley at Baltimore is one of the absurd possibilities of American politics." But it consoles itself by saying: "If Mr. Greeley should be indorsed at Baltimore, the indorsement would not represent the Democratic party, but only its trading politicians." It thus goes on to say:

"The blunder of the Greeley Democrats consists in their assumption that the party will as readily support Greeley as they would Judge Church or Mr. Thurman, if Greeley should be nominated at Baltimore. They will find that this is a mistaken calculation. There are hundreds of thousands of Democrats who would loyally vote for any Democratic nominee in deference to the National Convention, who cannot be brought to vote, under any circumstances, for the life-long assailant and defamer of the Democratic party.

"We do not believe there will be a bolt (at any rate, we shall not support a bolt), if Mr. Greeley should be nominated at Baltimore; though we freely say that if there should arise a chance of a successful bolt, it can count on our zealous co-operation. But we shall decline to go into any movement inspired by unreflecting passion, without regard to political possibilities. The danger is not from a bolt (for we do not believe there will be a bolt, even if Greeley is nominated at Baltimore), but from the disgust and apathy of multitudes of Democrats who will sullenly stay away from the polls when they are asked to vote for the chief libeler of their party.

"Under ordinary circumstances, a control of the party machinery is equivalent to a control of the full party vote. It is commonly assumed that, when a nomination is once made, all Democrats will give it a hearty support. This is safe ground to go upon if the nominee is a Democrat. But if the National Convention should venture to shock Democratic feeling by going out of the party and picking up a man who has been all his life the chief butt of Democratic derision, hosts of self-respecting Democrats will exercise their right to stay at home, and take no part in a canvass which would affront the party pride and be a gross insult to their sense of consistency.

"The Baltimore Convention cannot afford to ignore these hosts of sincere Democrats who care more for principle than for success. Nobody can bring them to the polls unless they choose to go. If they sullenly stay away, the election of Grant is certain if Greeley should be his only competitor.

"The exultation felt by Mr. Greeley's Democratic supporters in the prospect of his nomination at Baltimore, is supremely ridiculous. This is one of the cases in which a nomination cannot be relied on to secure votes. The nomination of Mr. Greeley at Baltimore would be a sham. He is likely to be supported by the delegates from all the States which cannot bring a single electoral vote for the Democratic candidate. What sense is there in parading the fact that the Democratic conventions in such States as Vermont, Massachusetts, Michigan, Kansas, Iowa, Wisconsin, and Minnesota, will vote for Greeley in the Baltimore Convention? None of the States can contribute anything to the support of these ticket; and it is only by a stretch of courtesy, in contravention of fairness, that they are permitted to have a voice in the nomination. The ticket ought to be selected by the States which can give it electoral votes. The votes at Baltimore of States which are hopelessly given over to Grant, are an impertinence unless they conform to the sentiment of the Democratic States. If the States which can furnish the votes were to make the nomination, Mr. Greeley could be indorsed.

"Even in the Democratic States, the thing is managed in utter disregard of fairness. We will take our own State for an example; for we have no doubt that New York is really Democratic, notwithstanding the Republican success last fall. A majority of the delegates selected at Rochester are no doubt for Greeley; but what right has he to the two-fifths or one-third of the delegation who scorn his pretensions and deprecate his nomination? And yet, the fraudulent instructions, which require the delegation to vote as a unit, give the Greeley Democrats power to conscript and impress the anti-Greeley delegates, and to count as his supporters the minority in the delegation which detests him. What justice is there in thus compelling anti-Greeley delegates to be counted as voting for a candidate they detest? It is a lie and a fraud. And it is only by such lies and such frauds that Mr. Greeley can ever get the requisite two-thirds of the Baltimore delegates. A nomination secured by this kind of dishonest trickery might be accepted as binding by the Democratic party, if the candidate were a Democrat. But when this dishonest machinery is made to operate in favor of the foremost assailant and reviler of the Democratic party, honest Democrats will largely avail themselves of their right to stay away from the polls. So, if Mr. Greeley should be nominated at Baltimore, he will be ignominiously defeated, unless the sullen and recalcitrant Democrats can be brought over previous to the election.

"This is improbable, even if those Democratic journals which oppose Greeley, and have thereby kept the sympathy of genuine Democrats, should at last recommend acquiescence in distasteful nominations. But if the Democratic journals which have vigorously opposed Mr. Greeley's nomination at Baltimore, should continue to oppose him to the end, his election is impossible. Any good Democratic nomination would command a full Democratic vote; and no opposition candidate can succeed without it. There are hundreds of thousands of Democrats who cannot be induced to vote for Greeley; and his nomination at Baltimore will be an act of supreme folly, unless he can bring over to our party strong Republican reinforcements; and there is as yet no evidence that he can bring one Republican voter for every ten Democrats that so utterly absurd a nomination will disgust and drive away."

Another Leading Democratic Paper Won't Go Greeley.

[From the Journal of Commerce.]

It was a great piece of assurance for a faction that has no history of successes to undertake to dictate candidates for adoption by the Democratic party, a party 2,000,000 strong at the last Presidential election, and, if it shows no gain within itself, requiring an accession of only 150,000 from the dissatisfied Republicans to beat General Grant. This bold game has been carried out in the spirit of audacity in which it was conceived, and many Democratic conventions and individual Democrats have accepted Greeley and Brown. They do not like the candidates, but they are possessed of the idea that it is too late to put others in the field, and that they only stand a chance of defeating the Philadelphia ticket. It is now apparent that Greeley will be strong in the Baltimore Convention. Should he be nominated there is little probability that he would receive the whole Democratic vote of the country, without which he has no hope of election.

It would almost seem, from the accounts which continue to reach us of the persecution of the Jews in Roumania, as if the nation had gone stark mad upon the subject. Prince Charles himself, the ruler of the province, seems unable to exert any perceptible influence over the masses; for, although he has again and again threatened to resign and leave the country unless the outrages are discontinued, the persecution merely appears to have been transferred from the civil to the religious arena, but not to have suffered any abatement in its rancorous ferocity. It is said, indeed, that the civil authorities of the country secretly sympathize with these misdeeds, and that not even the priests themselves take the least interest in causing the persecution to cease. The houses of the Jews are plundered and burned, their synagogues and cemeteries desecrated, and the most shocking acts of violence committed on all, without distinction of age or sex, who come within reach of the fury of the populace. So terrible has the condition of affairs at last become, that the foreign consuls have united in a common appeal to their governments to consider the matter and take such peremptory action as the interests of civilization and humanity shall dictate. It is to be hoped that this movement may be followed by a combined interposition that shall have the effect of putting an effectual stop to so shameful a blot on the Christianity of the nineteenth century.

Heretofore there has probably not been a single trade in the United States, of half the magnitude and importance, so wholly without organization and with so many errors and abuses, as the dairy trade. This evil is now being remedied. Boards of Trade for the exclusive sale of these products are being organized in a large number of towns and cities, and the movement, now that it has been started, will of course not only expand still further, but gradually crystallize itself into a thoroughly efficient system. The idea is an excellent one. Very few people have any adequate conception of the immense amount of capital invested in the dairy business. The aggregate annual value of dairy products in this country is estimated at fully six hundred millions of dollars. Butter and cheese boards ought to be regular institutions in every important city in the country, as they are in Great Britain and some other European countries. Some of the towns of Ireland have inspectors of these articles appointed by the corporation authorities, the products being graded according to quality and sold by the brands upon the packages. There does not seem to be any good reason why a somewhat similar plan might not work with advantage here.

The Connecticut river was formerly the boundary line between the towns of Wethersfield and Glastonbury, situated on opposite sides of the stream. Recently, however, it has moved in one place half a mile to the westward, eating into the territory of Wethersfield and leaving a portion of the town on the east side of the river and joined to Glastonbury; while by way of compensation it has shifted to the east in another place, about as far, and put a portion of Glastonbury on the west side of the river. The Legislature has been called on to fix the line anew.

There are rumors of coming troubles in the Indian Territory. Of late, white desperadoes, who have sought refuge in the Nation, have been largely increasing in numbers, forming regular bands, and, as the Indians assert, openly threatening the driving out of the red men. The late terrible encounter at Going Snake Court House has deepened the vindictiveness on both sides. The consequence to the Indians of any outbreak would be deplorable, and at the same time, if their stories are all true, their provocations are almost beyond endurance.

The Mackinac and Chicago Railroad Company is the name of a new organization, whereof S. R. Hughes, of St Joseph, is President. They propose to build a road from Monteith's Crossing, in Allegan county, to Valparaiso, Ind., running diagonally through Van Buren and Berrien counties. The Pennsylvania Central Company is understood to stand sponsor to the undertaking, and the men who have engaged in it are men who usually accomplish what they attempt. The surveys are to be made as soon as a suitable party can be got together.

The editor of the Louisville Courier-Journal, at the latest Greeley conference in New York, appealed for "Moral emancipation." Heaven grant that his prayer may be answered. It is just the thing he needs, as his friends have known for a long time.

GENERAL AND PARTICULAR.

The Supreme Court of Ohio has just decided that legal votes tendered at an election, but rejected by the judges thereof, cannot, upon a contest, be counted for the party in whose favor they were offered.

An admirable discovery has just been made in the shape of a new green which is brilliant enough to replace the poisonous color produced by arsenic. It is composed of twenty parts of oxide of zinc and of sulphate of cobalt, mixed into a paste with water and exposed to a red heat.

An ingenious apparatus has been invented by a French physician by which the heart is made to register photographically its own pulsations. Such, it is said, is the peculiarity of the apparatus, in its adaptation to different uses, that it may be modified so as to register the variations of the respiration, the irregular action of coughing, and similar physiological and pathological phenomena.

Private letters from the silver mining districts of Lake Superior say that the tendency of explorers to the silver regions, both from the United States and Canada during the summer, will probable be on a scale approximating, if not equaling, the emigration of California and the mineral districts of the Rocky Mountains during the earlier development of the mineral resources of those regions.

The sheep in Colorado have long wool, in which dust accumulates during summer. It is said that when grass has gone to seed the wind carries the seed into the meshes of the fleece. In winter the rain falls, the dust is turned to mud, in which grass grows, and then thousands of sheep may be seen traveling about in verdure clad, and with their pastures on their backs.

Some of the New Zealand aborigines have a wonderful liking for missionaries. Recently one of the former killed a missionary in full view of his whole congregation, cut off his head, gathered the congregation in their church, and then, standing in the pulpit, made a nice little meal of missionary brain and blood. He has since been hung.

Some idea of the immense exodus of people from the United States to Europe this season may be had from the fact that the number of cabin passengers who have left this season for Europe is estimated at upward of fifty thousand, the majority of whom were ladies. Quite a shegira.

Walt Whitman's "Leaves of Grass," have been translated into French from the original Choctaw. Now if somebody will translate them into English, the reading American people will in a measure be able to understand what they mean.

The dangers of looking like somebody else have been frequently illustrated, both before and since Shakspeare recorded the mishaps of the two Dromios. A respectable citizen of New York, named Linsey, who had a glass eye, was the other day arrested by a clothier on the charge of having defrauded him out of a suit of clothes—the mistake being in consequence of the fact that the actual swindler was also the possessor of a vitreous optic. An action for twenty thousand dollars damages has been brought—which makes it a costly suit of Linsey woolsey.

San Francisco is quietly depriving England of her tea laurels, without so much as saying, buy your leave. Twenty-three million dollars' worth of the tea we drank last year came to us through the Golden Gate, and tea traders say the amount will be doubled within two years.

A returned letter was received at Fitchburg, Massachusetts, a few days ago, through the dead-letter office at Washington, which was sent from there in July, 1861, to a sailor at Calcutta, East Indies. After nearly eleven years sojourning in foreign lands it has at last been returned to the writer.

Boston is a queer place. It sees no impropriety in the holding of a grand concert in the Jubilee building on Sunday evening, but vetoes, through its Mayor, the opening of the public library on Sundays because it would conflict with State enactments in regard to Sabbath observances. This looks like straining at a literary gnat and swallowing a musical camel.

From and after the first of next month women will be eligible to hold appointive offices in Illinois. Now the question is whether the Governor will make it a point to appoint any.

In an interior Tennessee town the office of mayor, alderman, chief of fire department, city marshal, chief of police, and city attorney, are all administered by one man, who also keeps the corner store and the postoffice. Here is a fine chance for the opposition to get a fling at "centralized government."

There is a hotel in California composed of ten immense hollow trees, standing a few feet apart. The largest of these is sixty-five feet around, and is used as bar and kitchen. For bed-chambers there are nine great hollow trees, whitewashed or papered, and having doors cut to fit the shape of the holes. Literature finds a place in a leaning stump, dubbed "the library."

PERSONAL.

The Arizona Indians that have arrived in Washington with Gen. Howard are described as being nearly as black as negroes. They do not paint their faces as most savages do. They are short in stature and slow in movement. They do not impress those who have seen them as being the equals, physically or mentally, of the Red Cloud band.

The only surviving grandson of Col. Ethan Allen, of Revolutionary memory, writes to the New York papers that the Ethan Allen who is actively engaged in the Greeley movement is not in the slightest manner connected with the family of the old hero, and that it is hoped he will apply to the Legislature at its next session to have his name changed.

Mr. Mori, Charge d'Affaires of the Japanese Legation, has presented to Mrs. Secretary Fish, from the Empress of Japan, a box of unique workmanship, composed of specimens of all the different colored silks manufactured in Japan; also a flower of silk closely resembling a lily. Both articles are the work of the Empress.

It is rumored that John Russell Young will shortly assume the editorial management of the New York Herald.

Rip Van Winkle Jefferson, about whom so much affectionate interest centers by reason alike of his genius and his lately threatened blindness, comes of a race of actors. His father was a sterling artist, particularly in eccentric parts, while it is said of his grandfather that never was a human face more plastic. His natural recognition of each personage in the mimic scene, his interest in all that was addressed to him, the plan or purpose of what he had to say, his coaxing, quizzing, wheedling, domineering, and grotesque effects, were all complete without the utterance of words; yet it was said that in these particulars he never twice rendered a scene in precisely the same manner. He was so perfect an artist that, although always faithful to his author, he could, by voice or face or gesture, make a point at every exit.

Motley, the historian, is the guest of the Queen of Holland.

Sir Edwin Landseer, the great English painter of animal life, is said to be in very poor health, and to be failing in his mind.

James Russell Lowell, the poet, will shortly go to Europe, designing to remain abroad two years.

The mystery about "Lord Gordon" is dispelled at last. He says he is a step-son of "the great English-Italian Count Henry De Grano." We receive his statement cum "grano" salis.

Of the Chicago Aldermen who were convicted and sentenced to prison last winter, one was recently liberated by a supersedeas, and two others, after serving as convicts for some months, have just been set free. Another of the indicted officials has become crazy, probably through terror, and is now the inmate of a lunatic asylum.

There has just died, in London, an eccentric Irishman by the name of Mortimer. He was in many ways a remarkable man, being a close student and an accomplished linguist, speaking at least a dozen modern languages fluently. Once wealthy, he died poor, having been ruined by the late French war. He began life as a cabin-boy, and subsequently became a medical student in Paris. Next he appeared in Germany, lecturing on Shakspeare; in Hamburg as a Greek professor; in Holland with a Spanish ballet troupe, whom he brought out; then as exhibitor of Tom Thumb and the Irish giant, Murphy, and finally himself performing as the "strong man" in a circus. He filled these diversified positions creditably, and was at one time tutor to Charles Lever's children, and companion to Sir William Don in his theatrical tours on the continent.

The rumors of Miss Nilsson's approaching marriage seem to be true. At least she herself writes to friends in New York that she is to be married to M. Auguste Rouzaud, in London, the last week in July. M. Rouzaud is a French gentleman, about thirty-six years of age, and is a stock broker, now residing in Paris. Miss Nilsson first met M. Rouzaud in Paris when she went to that city some seven years since, to begin her brilliant career. He is not a wealthy man, his property having been greatly impaired by the war. The bridal pair intend to sojourn in Switzerland during their honeymoon, and Miss Nilsson will reappear on the operatic stage in Russia in September next.

GEN. HARTRANFT.

The Attacks on Him Repelled—What George Lear, of Bucks, Says.

The Republicans of Lehigh county opened the campaign at Allentown, which was addressed by George Lear, Esq., an eminent and eloquent citizen of Bucks county. In referring to the attacks upon Gen. Hartranft, Mr. Lear said our candidate had—

"Fought for the cause of Freedom, the sentiment which was the father of the Republican party. As Auditor General he was a faithful and honest public officer. It was he who required a statement from a certain accounting officer of the State, and it was he who caused an investigation into the account of Evans to be made, and John Hartranft's hands were cleal of any complicity in that affair. There is not a spot upon his fair fame, and even the paper that attacks him acknowledges that Hartranft is an honest man. As far as principles are represented by men, JOHN F. HARTRANFT IS THE REPRESENTATIVE OF THE PRINCIPLES OF THE REPUBLICAN PARTY IN THIS STATE, AND EVERY TRUE REPUBLICAN WILL VOTE FOR HIM!"

Such is the language of Mr. Lear, of Bucks county, a man who is honored wherever known. Against such testimony as this—words from an original and consistent Republican—what does the childish complaining of Colonel Forney, of the Press, amount to in this neighborhood? One is the utterance of a man having the success of the principles of his party at heart; the other is that of one having at heart revenge on a political adversary who is supposed to stand in the way of personal preferment.

They had a real baby obligato at the Boston Jubilee the other day. While one of the performers was playing a cornet solo, an infant in the audience began to scream—the cries being uttered in the right places to give effect to the music, just as the artillery heightens the effect of the "Anvil Chorus" and other pieces. Gilmore ought to engage a nursery.

This is the eaves-dropping season. Hardly a New York paper comes to hand that does not contain an account of several persons killed or injured by rolling off the roofs of houses, whither they had gone from their rooms to sleep.

Lost Health Regained.

Self-neglect lays the foundation of much bodily suffering. As a rule men are more solicitous to repair and preserve their houses, stock in trade and other perishable property than to repair and preserve themselves. They can see when a wall requires a prop, or a weak structure a girder, but appear to be unconscious of, or indifferent to, the cracks and flaws and evidences of decay in their own frail and sensitive organizations.

The consequences of this want of common prudence is that thousands fall by the wayside in the prime of life every year who might have lived to enjoy a hale and hearty old age, if they had resorted to the proper means of recruiting their failing vigor at the proper time.

Seeing what that famous vitalizing and invigorating elixir, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, has done for countless multitudes of the enervated and broken down, and with the long, unbroken record of its cures before him, it seems amazing that any sufferer from premature decay, nervous weakness, dyspepsia, biliousness, chronic constipation, or diseases of a remittent or intermittent character should deley, even for an hour, to seek the aid which its toning, regulating and invigorating properties have never failed to afford.

It is no exaggeration to say that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is the most faithful ally of nature, in her struggles with weakness and disease, that medical botany and honest chemistry have yet given to the world.

It kills the Bug instantly.
It effectually destroys their eggs; therefore it is only necessary to use it once or twice during the season.
It possesses advantages over Insect Powders, inasmuch as it can be used in places where they cannot reach.
Its odor is agreeable, and it is warranted not to injure carpets, linen or furniture.
No fatal results can result from its use, as
IT CONTAINS NO POISON,
Which fact should give it a place in every household.

Monday, June 10th, 1872.

This favorite Summer Resort is delightfully situated a few rods from Sandy Lake, the most beautiful sheet of water in Pennsylvania, and is well stocked with fish and pleasure boats of all kinds. A good Livery is also connected with this favorite resort.
Seekers for health, as well as for recreation and fine Rural Scenery, will find in the Chalybeate Spring, on the grounds, all the virtues of tonic treatment found at the most celebrated watering places. By chemical analysis, one gallon of water was found to contain 10.80 grains of mineral substances, consisting principally of Carbonate of Lime, held in solution by Carbonic Acid Gas, associated with small quantities of Carbonate of Protoxide of Iron, Sulphate of Magnesia, Chloride of Sedium, and traces of Silicia and organic matter.
The analysis was made by the Professor of Chemistry in the Laboratory of the Philadelphia University of Medicine and Surgery.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, June 26, 1872.

Dullness keeps supreme on Fourth street, there being scarcely any movement beyond the regular routine of business, and no changes of money worthy of record.

—Among the coal men considerable activity is manifested, and the wharf presents appearances of an anticipated rise, which is reported coming from the Monongahela and Youghiogheny rivers. If the rise comes up to the telegraphic reports it will let out most of the coal now afloat, and place coal dealers in a situation that will relieve the banks of this neighborhood.

—Our opinion of the grain market, given two days since, has been confirmed, and the first indications of an advancing market is seen in higher quotations at Toledo. The usual fluctuations attending the speculative movements in the grain trade may excite some feverish feeling till the new crop is harvested, but each returning wave will indicate that the tide is rising.

—The activity in the iron trade is said to be confined to those houses having a specialty to manufacture, and having exclusive control of the trade. Some parties that have been running double turn are coming down to their usual time and not pressing their stock on a market unwilling to bear a new load.

—The government commenced paying the July coupons to-day without rebate of interest, so that holders of 5-20 coupons can now use them the same as cash gold.

—Messrs. Ira B. McVay & Co. report the following quotations of Government bonds in New York to-day, as furnished them by Jay Cooke & Co., their correspondents:

—The Acting Secretary of the Treasury will soon issue a circular relative to destroyed and defaced bonds. It provides that parties presenting claims on account of coupon or registered bonds of the United States destroyed wholly or in part, are required to present proof in accordance with the act of June 1, 1872, showing, first, the amount, number, date and class of each security; if registered, the name of the party to whom payable; and, if assigned, the names of the assignors and assignees. Second, the time and place of purchase, of whom purchased, and the consideration paid. Third, the cause and manner of destruction. Proofs may be made by affidavit, duly authenticated, and by such other evidence as may be in possession of the party. When these requirements shall have been complied with the claim will be referred to the proper treasury official for his decision.

—The originators of the scheme for a big national bank at New York, according to report, have determined to postpone its organization until after election, for the reason that a change of Presidency might bring about a system of opposition to the bill, and for the further reason that they do not wish to deposit 4½ per cent. bonds as security for their circulation.

—The First National Bank of New York has declared its quarterly dividend of ten per cent. payable July 1st, and carried twenty per cent. to surplus account. The net profits of this bank for the past year have been over sixty per cent. on its capital, of which thirty-five per cent. has been divided to its stockholders, and the balance carried to surplus.

PITTSBURGH LIVE STOCK MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH COMMERCIAL,
WEDNESDAY, June 26, 1872.

Cattle.

The arrivals of cattle this week up to and including to-day have been heavy, and consist principally of the medium and lower grades. The market has ruled dull and bad, buyers holding off and not wanting to take hold. All day trade dragged very slow, with prices from ¼ to ½c lower than ruled last week. Following are the rates which holders are asking for the different grades of cattle: Extra, 1,300 to 1,400 steers, $6 75 to $6 87; good 1,200 to 1,300 $6 50 to $6 60; fair 1,100 to 1,200 cattle $6 25 to $6 35; 1,000 lb steers $5 75 to $6 00; common $5 00 to $5 65; bulls $2 50 to $3 25.

Hogs.

The arrivals of hogs to-day have been a little heavy. The market rules slow, with the inclination of prices downward. Buyers seem determined to force prices down, and judging from the feeling that exists we think they will be successful, prices are ¼c lower than on Monday last. Prime Philadelphia are selling from $4 50 to $4 60; good Philadelphia $4 35 to $4 50; Yorkers $4 25 to $4 35.

Sheep.

The receipts of sheep continue heavy. The market rules slow and very draggy, and it is impossible to sell sheep for their worth this week. Prices are very uneven. Some holders get scared and sell out at ruinously low figures, thus making it hard to give correct quotations. Following are the rates at which most of the sales have been made: Extra, 90 lb sheep, $5 25 to $5 35; good, 80 lbs, $4 50 to $5 10; fair $4 50 to 4 75; common $3 50 to $4 00.

IRON MARKETS.

CINCINNATI.

June 25.—We have nothing new to report of the market for pig iron. There was a fair demand for all grades, and but little accumulation in supplies. Malleable iron is in fair request. We quote:

PHILADELPHIA.

Mr. E. Samuels' circular in reference to the Philadelphia iron market, says: "In pig, foundry irons continue firm and advancing, with no stocks in hands of either producers or consumers. Forge irons are also firm in consequence of the rise in foundry grades. Bar iron is somewhat weaker, but we hear no concessions by city mills. The foreign markets remain firm, as last reported."

Cincinnati Coal and Coke Market.

June 25.—The supply is not equal to former seasons, and we have not had the reduction in rates that was anticipated. With a moderate inquiry the following quotations rule the market:

Ohio river, delivered, per bush	16a18c
Cannel, delivered, ℔ bush	24a
Gas coke, at factory	10a

Imported ribbons were much better looked after at auction to-day, and, although prices were much improved, there was an unusual amount of repeats at the prices going. Sash widths in Stuart plaid and fancy block patterns were the most looked after, along with blacks, whites, blues and fentre. THE marks last evening indicated seven feet and rising. The coal men were in the best of humor. The prospect for a large rise was a good one. The present rise will cause a resumption of navigation on the Ohio.

COMMODORE R. C. GRAY is in St. Louis.

THE Carrie Brooks will leave Wheeling this day for Pittsburgh.

THE crews of several towboats left yesterday to bring their boats up.

THE Wild Duck and barges will be docked and thoroughly repaired.

THERE is a large number of barges ready loaded with coal and coke.

CAPT. REA's new boat will be launched at Metropolis in about two weeks.

THE Juniata, Captain Breman, will leave Cincinnati this day for Pittsburgh.

IF the water reaches ten feet there will be a gay time among the boatmen.

DISPATCHES were forwarded to boats laid up on the Ohio to return to Pittsburgh forthwith.

SEVERAL towboats were receiving their stores in order to take an early start this morning.

THE coal men had a busy time yesterday getting their barges in order for a trip down the Ohio.

THE small towboats had a busy time yesterday. The same will be continued to-day and probably tomorrow.

THE Gray iron line will take out 1,000 tons of railroad iron on this rise. The Commodore has a live set of men in her employ.

THE Youghiogheny river rose seven feet at West Newton on Tuesday night. The way the flats and barges were moved about was a caution.

THE steamer Granite State will arrive to-day and take her departure on Friday for Marietta, Parkersburg and Portsmouth.

THE well known packet West Virginia, Captain Donaldson, takes her departure this day at 3 P. M. for Brownsville and Geneva. For any further information call on or address S. R. Patterson, on the wharfboat.

THE U. S. Mail packets on the slackwater leave daily at 8 A. M. and 5 P. M. These boats are side-wheelers, and were built expressly for the trade, and are in charge of careful and attentive officers. For further information call on Captain A. S. Carlile on the wharfboat.

CAPT. LOCKHART, Superintendent of the Canal, says that no definite time has been fixed for closing the canal, but that it will probably be closed within the next thirty days. It will be so arranged that it will be kept open in order to get another run of coal through.

THE present rise in Red river is from the highest sources, having its rise in Arizona and the Indian nation. The water is tinged with a deep red color, which indicates whence it comes. At Fulton, the rise was six feet or over seven feet, and at Shreveport several feet.

MONDAY's Cincinnati Gazette says: We have been informed that there is no more coal for sale in the river here. Scarcely two-thirds of the amount originally intended for this port have been received, many having taken on down the river, the market South offering better returns.

THE rise in the Youghiogheny broke loose fourteen of Mr. J. N. Bigley's loaded coal barges from Elrod's. Several were reported sunk. A portion of them ran into three of W. H. Brown's and sunk one of O'Neal's at the tipple. James Lynn & Son lost a fuel boat at McKeesport.

AFF. CUTTING, of Metropolis, has contracted with the Wiggins Ferry Company, of St. Louis, to build a tug in ninety days for St. Louis harbor purposes. It is to be one-third larger than the Crevelling, and will be 80 feet long, 18 feet beam, 5 feet hold, cylinders, 22 inches stroke, and wheel 7 feet.

CAIRO, June 24.—River fell six inches. The Greyhound brought two barges iron ore. The Middleport brought down two barges salt from Middleport and Gilmore this evening. The John Gilmore and Smoky City passed down with tows of coal. The Lucy Bertram, City of Helena and St. Joseph had fair trips. The Mollie Ebert was laid aden.

LOUISVILLE.—The amount of wharfage collected at this port for the two weeks ending Saturday, June 22, 1872, was as follows:

City wharf	$678 46
Portland wharf	198 50
Strader wharf	288 25
Total	$1,165 21

MAJOR HOWELL, in charge of the United States Engineer Department at New Orleans, is now engaged in preparing an elaborate report on the ship canal below Fort St. Phillip. He will soon submit a document which will give all the facts of the case before the country, showing that the proposed canal is feasible, and can be constructed at a comparatively small cost, and at a depth of twenty-seven feet of water obtained.

A LANDING WANTED.—Captain William J. Kountz has applied for a location at our wharf for his wharf boat, and the question will soon be decided in favor of authorizing Captain Kountz to use a convenient portion of the paved wharf, as his continental-crop-carrying steamboats will soon be in regular operation between this port and New Orleans and other points. There is no doubt of his ability to render great service to the commerce of this city. This being the case, the application demands an early and favorable decision by the Harbor Master, or the Council Committee on Harbor, or whoever else the proper authority may be.—St. Louis Democrat.

THE New Orleans Times of Friday says: "About five o'clock last evening the steamboats Wild Wagoner and Governor Allen, the former of the Mississippi Valley Transportation Company, lying at Greenville, were driven from their moorings by the storm prevailing at the time, and landed about three miles down on the opposite side of the river. The Governor Allen was partially filled with water and her smoke stacks blown down. The Wagoner and barge escaped uninjured. The police launch Two Brothers, with Captain Schreiber, of the Harbor Police, went to their assistance, and was only able by the greatest exertion to secure them from further injury."

MONDAY's Cincinnati Gazette says: The Mary Davage and the Colossal, of Pittsburgh manufacture, arrived from Pittsburgh yesterday morning, and after having sold about sixty-five tons here, left for St. Louis with 450 tons. Capt. D. Clay Richmond is in command, and Samuel Williamson and Alex. Frazier are her pilots.

THE Custom House records show that a half interest in the towboat Hawkeye No. 2 has been sold by J. W. Whitley, of Pittsburgh, to E. S. Carr, of Ashland, for $1,700. With the report was also a transfer to the same party of the barge Hawkeye No. 2 for $1,000.

THE Hawkeye No. 2, Parkersburg to St. Louis, passed down on Saturday with two barges oil in bulk and one empty barge. Pilots, Josiah Jacobs and Wm. Ford.

THE Charley Macdonald passed up from St. Louis to Pittsburgh with a barge of iron ore and several empty barges.

THE Nashville Banner says: "Col. S. T. Abert, in charge of the Cumberland river improvement, has a pleasant office in the building immediately opposite the Battle House, and has been busily engaged preparing specifications for the work which is to be done upon the Cumberland under the appropriation recently made by Congress. The Colonel was recently down to General Weitzel, at Louisville, where he gave to Col. Abert's office a plot of the surface and bed of the river at low water, from Flax-patch shoals to Reed's reef, a distance of four and a half miles. Here the principal work of the summer will be done, though the obstructions at Ingraham and Nashville shoals will receive some attention. About $12,000 of the old appropriation remains unexpended, which will be used as soon as the contractor, as recommended by Major Maddox, the contractor, can see the stage of the river permits. As it is Col. Abert's intention to make the limited aid granted by Congress go as far as possible, he will expend it upon the shoals which will be of the greatest advantage to the interests of navigation. Several of our prominent steamboatmen have been very emphatic in their approval of the comprehensive plan and the benefits resulting therefrom."

THE St. Louis Democrat of Monday says: It is pleasing to the friends of progress in river commerce to note the steady advance being made in improvements which will be permanent, and apparently prove to be the basis of a new era in commerce, in the interests of St. Louis. In these, the successful running of towboats with rafts from both Eads and Dowler's shoal water wheels figure prominently, and are destined to plan an important part. Our readers' attention is called to the following from the Dubuque Herald of last Thursday: The new iron tug J. G. Chapman, which was recently built for the Eau Claire Lumber Company, of St. Louis, and is owned by Messrs. Rouse & Dean, by Johnson & Kalky, of this city. The boat was manufactured for the Eau Claire Lumber Company of St. Louis. It is 125 feet in length, has a 25-foot beam, a 4-foot hold, and has two Dowler shoal water wheels, each ten feet in diameter. The hull is of iron, being covered with ⅜-inch iron plates, and the bottom with ⅝-inch plates. The boat has ten feet of iron, ¾-inch plate, at the bow. The boat contains eight water-tight compartments, and will be as near safe as possible. The engines and other machinery are in position, in addition to fuel for a twenty-four hours' trip, the boat will draw from sixteen to eighteen inches of water. The cylinders will be two inches and have a fourteen-inch bore. The tug will be used in towing boats and rafts, and will ply between Eau Claire, Wisconsin, and St. Louis. She starts out on her first trip about the 10th of July. Messrs. Rouse & Dean, by the superior manner in which they have constructed this craft, have given another evidence of their great ability as manufacturers.

MEDICAL.

Which weighs upon the heart?

TAKE

MEXICAN FLUID EXT. BUCHU!

The Greatest Diuretic Ever Disc'd.

THERE IS NO TONIC LIKE IT!

THE PUREST AND MOST RELIABLE BUCHU PREPARED IS THE

Mexican Fluid Ext. Buchu,

"A positive and specific Remedy" for Non-Retention or Incontinence of Urine, Irritation, Inflammation or Ulceration of the Bladder and Kidneys, Diseases of the Prostrate Gland, Stone in the Bladder, Calculus, Gravel or Brick Dust Deposit and Mucous or Milky Discharges, and all Diseases of the Bladder and Kidneys, and Dropsical Swellings existing in men, women or children.

HOLMES & CO'S

Fluid Extract of Mexican Buchu.

For weakness arising from Excesses, Habits of Dissipation, Early Indiscretion, attended with the following symptoms: Indisposition to Exertion, Loss of Power, Loss of Memory, Difficulty of Breathing, Weak Nerves, Trembling, Horror of Disease, Dimness of Vision, Wakefulness, Pain in the Back, Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System, Hot Hands, Flushing of the Body, Dryness of the Skin, Eruptions on the Face and Pallid Countenance.

FEMALES.—In many affections peculiar to Females, the EXTRACT BUCHU is unequalled by any other remedy—as in Chlorosis, Irregularity, Painfulness or Suppression, Ulceration or Schirrus state of the Uterus, Sterility, and in complaints incident to the sex, whether arising from Indiscretion, Habits of Dissipation, or in the Decline or Change of Life. It is specially adapted to all conditions of the Bladder and Kidneys, Diseases or Symptoms.

No Family Should be Without It!

These symptoms, if allowed to go on, which this medicine invariably removes, soon follow Impotency, Fatuity, Epileptic Fits, in one of which the patient may expire. Who can say that they are not frequently followed by those "direful diseases," INSANITY AND CONSUMPTION. Many are aware of the cause of their suffering, but none will confess. The records of the insane asylums and the melancholy deaths by Consumption, bear ample witness to the truth of the assertion. The Constitution once affected with Organic Weakness, requires the aid of medicine to strengthen and invigorate the system, which "Holmes & Co.'s Buchu" invariably does.

Retailed by all Druggists at 75 CENTS PER BOTTLE, or 6 ounces, or 24 days medicine, at once placing this valuable compound within reach of all. Price 75 cents per bottle, or six bottles for $4.

BEWARE of counterfeits. Ask for Mexican Fluid Extract Buchu. Take no other. HOLMES & Co., Proprietors, New York City, and sold by all Druggists. BEWARE of Spurious Buchu Mixtures, prepared by self-styled doctors. Holmes & Co.'s Mexican Fluid Extract Buchu.

THE PEACE JUBILEE.

The Best Programme Yet Given—All the Celebrities Participating—Letter From our Special Correspondent.

BOSTON, June 26.—Fifteen thousand people, exclusive of the chorus, attended the concert this afternoon. The programme was one of the best yet given. Leutner, Strauss and all the bands having parts were encored. Leutner answered with "Home, Sweet Home," Strauss with his famous polka, and bands with American airs. Lleyel's hymn was sung, conducted by Tourjee, and "Old Hundred" closed the performance.

The grand ball this evening at the Coliseum was attended by at least twenty-five thousand people. The English, German and French bands performed introductory music. The two and a half acres of floor, from which the seats were removed, being literally packed with would-be promenaders, locomotion in any of the promenades was difficult, and soon after the first quadrille was attempted those who did not propose to dance sought rest in the spacious gallery. Strauss led the waltzes, including "Morgenblatter," "Kuntsler," "Leben," "Blue Danube," "Wine, Women and Song," "Weiner Wold," and "Thousand and One Nights." The order was interspersed with quadrilles under Gilmore and the bands furnishing promenade music. There was little dress, the affair being on the popular scale. The floral ornamentations added to the regular decorations were very handsome. The President, a portion of his Cabinet, Count Arno, Minister from Austria, and Westenburgh, Representative of Netherlands, were present.

Special Correspondence of the Pittsburgh Commercial.

BOSTON, MASS., June 24, 1872.

Yesterday's, (Sunday's) concert was one of most enjoyable of the whole week past.

The announcement of a Sunday afternoon concert roused a great deal of opposition and adverse remark. It is no uncommon thing here to have "sacred" concerts on Sabbath evening—and no matter what the music may be, calling it "sacred" whitewashes the whole thing, and the children of the Puritans "wipe their mouths and say we have done no evil."

The audience yesterday was not large, the building appeared tolerably well filled on the main floor, and very thinly in the balconies,—but as every individuals took plenty of room, the reality would hardly bear out out the appearance. A city paper estimates the audience at 5,000. I would say there was eight or ten thousand people present.

The chorus was about half full, ditto the orchestra, but the music sounded just about as powerful and appeared to be more easily kept in hand. The fact is that very many of the singers appear to the irreverent outside to be doing anything else than their level best, and as to how many are the reverse of useful, is one of the many "things that n-no feller can find out."

The atmosphere yesterday appeared to be pervaded by a Sabbath quiet and coolness, and everything was in the best condition possible for the perfect enjoyment of the concert. The first number on the programme was Keller's "Angel of Peace," which was given by the full chorus and orchestra. It went off magnificently, and was a fitting opening to the exercises of the day.

The next piece was Wagner's overture to "Rienzi," which was rendered by the orchestra in grand style. Madame Peschka Leutner then appeared, and, as usual, was rapturously received by the audience. She is unquestionably the prime favorite at the Jubilee, and well she deserves to be, for she is one of the very best singers we have ever heard in this country, besides having all the ease and graces of a lady, without any of the airs and claptrap that we are so often disgusted with. She sang an aria and variation by Proch, winning a hearty encore, to which she responded with the latter part of the piece. This aria has been sung twice before, I believe, and with better and better effect every time.

Number four was, "He watching over Israel," from Mendelssohn's "Elijah," by all the forces, chorus, orchestra and organ.

The "Inflamatus," from Rossini's "Stabat Mater," followed with the solo by Madame Rudersdorff, and then came the Emperor's "Household Quartette," in a cornet quartette. This was the second appearance of these gentlemen in the Coliseum, and they made a wonderful impression. They are all artists, and the style of music they produce is something new. Four cornets (different sizes of course) playing in sustained notes, being the music just as four first-class singers would give it, without the words, and as smooth as oil. At their first appearance they came on immediately after a big noisy piece, and the performance fell flat, but this time they had a better chance, following, as they did, Madame Rudersdorff, who nobody cared to hear. They were encored three times.

The next number on the programme was the "Gloria," from Mozart's "Twelfth Mass," by chorus and orchestra, which went off splendidly, and then came a cornet solo by Mr. Arbuckle, "Ave Maria," by Schubert. This was particularly enjoyable, from the fact that he eschewed the usual corkscrew variations. He won an encore, and returning, gave "Robin Adair," and rendered it most beautifully.

The programme was made up somewhat differently yesterday from the usual style, and the hymn time, instead of being tacked on to the end, was introduced at this point. It was the old tune "Bethany."

Now appears the African. The "Jubilee Singers," from Nashville, were trotted out and sang a song, were encored and sang another, were encored again, and sang still another. This may do very well to fill up the time, but is not worth traveling seven hundred miles to hear. There are about a dozen or sixteen of these "Jubilee Singers," and they do very well for—

Number eleven was "Sweet and Low;" words by Tennyson, music by Barnby, for chorus and orchestra. It was sweet and low, and was really one of the most beautiful things of the whole jubilee. The concert was concluded by the "Hallelujah" chorus, from Handel's "Messiah."

We had no band in yesterday's concert, for which I was sorry, and we had no piano, for which I was glad. We are at liberty to suppose that the band was dispensed with out of deference to public opinion, but why the piano was shelved I cannot say.

Wehli is said to be awfully jealous ever since Herr Bendel beat him at left hand playing, and, perhaps, his German highness did not wish to harrow up the feelings of his English friend, for that he was in usual health there can be no doubt, judging from the way in which he punished the eatables at dinner yesterday.

Franz Abt has gone to New York. It is understood that he has sundry engagements to lead in Brooklyn and elsewhere. I am told that he has contracted with the Board of Public Instruction here to write or compile three music books for use in the schools, "Primary," "Progressive" and "Normal," in which he will use his own music. It will require him to write twenty-five new songs.

A JURY AT LAST.

The twelfth juror in Stokes's case was obtained this afternoon. The case was opened by the District Attorney, who claimed that but one verdict could be rendered, if it was proved the prisoner deliberately shot Fisk. He urged the jury to lay aside all impressions and rest upon the evidence laid before them. The case was then adjourned till to-morrow morning.

DISTINGUISHED RAILROAD PARTY.

James McHenry, of Atlantic and Great Western Railroad fame, and other gentlemen interested in the Erie question, arrived last night by the Russia. This party controls more than sixty millions of Erie stock and are busily engaged in framing a new board of directors. Mr. McHenry was closeted with Mr. S. L. M. Barlow this afternoon, and it is understood their arrangements are well nigh perfected.

THE LABOR STRIKES.

All the hands employed at Baxter's furniture manufactory, Forty-fifth street and Tenth avenue, numbering one hundred and fifty, reported to Fight Hour League to-day, having again struck in consequence of a determination on the part of employers to return to the old system after having for the past five weeks adopted the eight hour law. The marble polishers, metal workers, iron moulders and Singer sewing machine men are still on a strike. The house painters have all returned to work at eight hours. The pavement contractors have mostly acceded to the demands of their men, who struck this morning for higher wages per yard and eight hours. The Brooklyn City Railroad increased the pay of all employees twenty-five cents per day. No new development occurred to-day in Paterson relative to the strike in the locomotive shops. Three thousand men are out of work, representing fifteen thousand persons, who are direct sufferers from the movement, while the stoppage of work involves a loss of $7,000 a day to the city.

There was the usual procession, followed by literary exercises and bestowal of degrees by President Eliot. President Grant, Gov. Washburne and James Martineau received the degree of LL.D. Much enthusiasm was manifested as the names of President Grant and Gov. Washburne were called, the audience rising and cheering.

POLITICAL.

Vermont Republican Convention—Largest Ever Held in the State.

MONTPELIER, VT., June 26.—The Republican Convention for the nomination of candidates for Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Treasurer and two Electors at large was held at this place to-day. Four hundred and fifteen delegates, representing nearly every town in the State, were present. The two leading candidates for the Gubernatorial nomination were Hon. John W. Stewart and Hon. Fred. Billings, and the feeling between their supporters was strong and positive. Hon. Julius Converse appearing with considerable strength as a third candidate, prevented a nomination on first ballot. Before the second ballot Stewart was withdrawn and his supporters cast their votes for Converse. The result was the nomination of the latter by just the required vote. Hon. R. S. Taft, of Burlington, was nominated for Lieutenant Governor, and Hon. John A. Page, of Montpelier, for Treasurer. For electors the convention nominated Hon. Harmon Canfield and E. P. Jewett. Resolutions strongly indorsing the Philadelphia platform and nominees were passed. After the business of the convention was completed Mr. Billings, in pursuance of unanimous request appeared on the platform and made an admirable speech. The gathering was a noble one in the character of its members, and was the largest delegation convention ever held in Vermont.

The Philadelphia "Liberals" Demonstrate.

PHILADELPHIA, June 26.—The Liberal Republicans of this city opened the campaign at Morton Hall to-night. Among the speakers was Hon. A. K. McClure, who made a speech as bitter as that of Sumner, charging the administration with nepotism, bribery and corruption. The Philadelphia Convention was ridiculed as a packed affair, consisting only of Postmasters, Custom House officials and members of the bread and butter brigade generally. The action of the Union League, in the indorsement of Grant, was ridiculed as directly opposed to the decision of two years ago not to interfere in politics. Senators Morton and Logan, and others, were fiercely attacked.

Kansas Democrats and "Liberals" for Greeley and Brown.

LAWRENCE, KS., June 26.—The State Central Committees of the Democratic and Liberal Republican parties of Kansas met here to-day, and after a very harmonious joint meeting called a convention of both parties for the nomination of Presidential electors, member of Congress and State officers, at Topeka, on the 11th of September. The feeling among them is unanimous for Greeley and Brown.

Ohio River Improvement Commission.

CINCINNATI, June 26.—The Commissioners for the improvement of the Ohio river, appointed by the Governors of adjacent States, under a resolution adopted by the River Improvement Convention last winter, were in session here to-day. The following is a list of the persons appointed. Indiana—O. P. Cable, Charles H. Meekin, Gen. L. Noble, Charles H. Mason, August Lemecke; Ohio—V. B. Horton, Robert Martin, Ben. Eggleston, Thos. Sherlock, J. G. Peebles; Pennsylvania—J. K. Moorhead, J. K. Kerr, J. Walker, Edmund Blanchard, Thomas Powers; West Virginia—John McClure, Thomas Sweeney, W. J. Poole, J. S. King, J. P. Hall. Of this number but ten were present. An organization was effected by electing General Moorhead, chairman, and Capt. B. Santmeyer, Secretary. The smallness of the number present appears to have arisen from some want of general advertising, and will prevent the meeting taking such action as they otherwise would. Another session occurs to-morrow morning, and a memorial may be adopted. It was agreed, however, that another meeting should be held on the 18th of September.

Labor Strikes Strongly Denounced.

CINCINNATI, June 26.—Archbishop Purcell, in an address to the graduating class of St. Xavier's College, took occasion to speak on the eight hour strikes, trades unions, &c. He said the demoralizing and destructive influence of Internationalism should be denounced. He agreed with a recent writer who believed that trades unions were detrimental to laboring men and every person concerned. If eight hours were agreed upon to-day, six or four hours might be demanded to-morrow; for who should set limits to such arrogance and dictation. If labor said to capital to-day it must have five dollars, to-morrow it might demand ten. No government could continue to exist under such a system. The next cry might be that to possess property was robbery, and division be awarded. Thus every loafer and drunkard would require a new subdivision every Saturday night until there should be nothing remaining to subdivide. A remedy for these evils he believed was in liberal education.

Serious Accident to an Editor.

SPRINGFIELD, ILLS., June 26.—About twelve o'clock to-night W. F. Story, Esq., editor of the Chicago Times, was at the depot of the Chicago and Alton Railroad to take the night train for his home. The sleeping car into which Story designed to get stopped at the end of the platform, which is raised some distance from the ground the height increased by a deep gutter running beside the platform. In stepping from this platform to the cars Mr. Story miscalculated his distance, or made a mistep and fell, twisting his right leg under him in such a manner as to fracture it just above the ankle. Dr. W. Fowler, of this city, who had accompanied Mr. Storey to the train, came at once to his assistance and immediately set the fracture, and placing the wounded gentleman in a carriage, held the injured limb into place until they arrived at his residence, where the patient was placed in bed and the necessary bandages and splints applied. At this hour, 1 A. M., Mr. Story is resting quite easily.

The oldest known copy of the Athanasian creed was lately discovered in an ancient library in Venice. It has none of the damnatory clauses. Its authenticity is said to be beyond question, and it is therefore evident that these clauses are the interpolations of a later age.

There are seventy-nine narrow-gauge railroads, aggregating nearly ten thousand miles in length, already built and under construction in the United States and Canada.

German Exodus to the United States.

The exodus from Germany to the United States continues to attract the attention of the Berlin government, and the revocation of emigrant agents' licenses is urged as one way to stop it. In a recent debate in the German Parliament it was stated that, within five years, fifteen thousand able-bodied laborers had left Pomerania alone for the United States, and that it is now almost impossible to find farm hands enough to work the estates of the landed proprietors. There is also a very large emigration from Mecklenberg, including about four thousand men annually, whom it is considered very desirable to keep at home; from other States also complaints come of a similar character. The reason assigned for the exodus from Pomerania and Mecklenberg is the impossibility of the laboring classes acquiring a freehold, owing to the system of large estates being retained in the hands of a few wealthy and noble proprietors; but this does not entirely explain the movement, since, in other States where a different system prevails, small proprietors are selling their lands at a sacrifice in order to obtain the money with which to emigrate. The main reason for it is, doubtless, found in the fact that their friends who have come to this country and located on the cheap lands of the West have generally realized the brightest anticipations of material prosperity, and the letters of these people to their relatives and others at home, are constantly attracting many more. Just now there are probably other influences operating in the same direction, such as the increased taxation and cost of living there since the Franco-German war, and the conscription system which must be a greater burden upon any people where it is adopted.

The Stamp Duties.

As it has been a disputed question whether certain stamp taxes were abolished by the revenue law passed at the close of the last session of Congress, it will interest our readers to know just how far the abolition extends. The new law in this respect reads as follows:

SECTION 36. That on and after the first day of October, 1872, all the taxes imposed by stamps under and by virtue of schedule B, of section 170 of the act approved June 30, 1864, and the several acts amendatory thereof, be and the same are hereby repealed, excepting only the tax of two cents on bank checks, drafts or orders. Provided that where any mortgage has been executed and recorded, or may be executed or recorded, before the first day of October, 1872, to secure the payment of bonds or obligations that may be made and issued from time to time, and such mortgage not being stamped, all such bonds or obligations so made and issued on or after said first day of October, 1872, shall not be subject to any stamp duty, but only such of their bonds or obligations as may have been made and issued before the day last aforesaid: And provided, further, that in the meantime the holder of any instrument of writing of whatever kind and description which has been made or issued without being duly stamped or with a defunct stamp, may make application to any collector of internal revenue, and that upon such application such collector shall thereupon affix the stamp provided by such holder upon such instrument of writing as required by law to be put upon the same, and subject to the provisions of section 158 of the internal revenue laws.

Nonsensical Talk about Hard Times.

THE Merrimac Journal, in discussing the labor question, says: There are a thousand million dollars in the savings banks of this country, chiefly the deposits of labor, and yet labor is striking for higher wages. Since the world began there has never been an age or a clime, a country or a nation where labor was in so much demand and so well rewarded as it is in this country to-day. There is no person out of work who cannot find employment if he has the skill and the will to work; and there is no man in health, unless he has a large family—and that is wealth enough of itself to satisfy anybody—who cannot be among the savings banks depositors, laying up something for a "rainy day." Wages for common laborers are two dollars a day, and for skilled mechanics three and four dollars, and in the cities for some classes five; if a workingman can't get rich at that he has only himself to blame. It is blasphemy for him to talk about hard times. Professional men are not so well paid, relatively. As compared with mechanics' wages, school teachers, clergymen, physicians and awyers are poorly paid. They don't average as much as first class printers, machinists, bricklayers, blacksmiths, shoemakers, or carriage makers. Skilled hands earn more than educated brains.

Gov. Curtin and Prince Gortschakoff

The St. Petersburg correspondent of the New York Tribune, in giving an account of the reception of Gen. Sherman at the Russian Capital, quotes a high compliment paid to Gov. Curtin by Prince Gortschakoff. He says "the Prince was very cordial in his manner, and took occasion to compliment Gov. Curtin by saying to Gen. Sherman that in all his long experience in public life there never had been an American Minister here whose relations with the Foreign Office were so pleasant, who was so much liked by the Emperor, and had made such an agreeable impression on all classes of society. The Prince also spoke of the Catacazy affair, and said that if Mr. Curtin had been able to come to Germany and lay the matter before him personally, it would all have been settled in half an hour, and there would have been no trouble at all, as the Russian government never wished to impose a disagreeable representative on another Power." The correspondent adds that "Gov. Curtin is only awaiting the return of the Emperor to present his letters of recall, when he will go back to America and take part in the Presidential campaign. He carries with him the regrets of every one, Russians and foreigners. It is seldom that a Minister represents his country so well as Mr. Curtin has done, and he has conciliated universal good will and friendship to his country."

THE Jewish church, press and public, in New York, have been scandalized by a marriage between a German Jew of wealth and good connections to his brother's widow, a union which, according to the Hebrew interpretation of Mosaic law, is incestuous and an unpardonable sin. From a Christain standpoint the arrangement was a highly desirable one. The parties were both rich and very much in love with each other, but an obstacle fixed generations ago by an orthodox European synod stood in the way and threatened excommunication if they consummated their vows in wedlock. Several Rabbis refused to unite them, and only when the bridegroom equivocated and told Dr. Huebsch that he was a cousin of the bride's first husband would he solemnize their marriage. The near relatives are well enough pleased, and only the organs and the priests and defenders of the old laws and traditions of Judaism are especially put out by it. The Jewish Times referred to it as an incestuous marriage, and severely criticises Dr. Huebsch as guilty of willful complicity with the parties or criminal negligence.

A SALT LAKE letter says: "When the congregation was dismissed, the rustle of silks and the flashing of diamonds attracted my attention, and I saw many of the poor Mormon women gazing with longing eyes on the rich dresses of their Gentile sisters. The contrast between saints and sinners was still further heightened by the conduct of the men. The Gentile men tucked the arms of their pretty wives under their own, and walked away with a proud air, while the Mormon women trudged off alone. How could a Mormon husband tuck the arms of half-a-dozen wives into his? And, if he escorted one, or even two wives, how would the rest feel. If I wanted to break down Mormonism, I would put a dozen French millinery stores in Salt Lake City, give General Morrow, the military commander, $15,000 or $20,000 to entertain with during the winter, and station a strong corps of good-looking young army officers at Camp Douglas."

A NEW YORK letter says: "The eight-hour movement is about to take a turn which will be likely to surprise the 'regular' politicians. I learn from good authority that some of the more active of the leaders have been in consultation to-day with a view of forming a third, or balance of power party, which shall decide the Presidential election. They claim, if all the trades can be united, without reference to Democratic or Republican party distinctions, they can cast at least 50,000 votes in this city, and this will decide the fate of the State. They are also sanguine of carrying Pennsylvania and Ohio. The basis of the movement is the ticket nominated at Columbus, Ohio, some time since, but which has been latterly lost sight of."

THE New York Bulletin calls attention to the significant relations of the exports of grain from the United States and from Canada. It shows that Montreal is now the second commercial city on the continent. She has forty-one regular steamships plying to Europe, and her receipts of grain have risen from 6,750,000 in 1860 to 16,000,000 in 1871, while New York, even with reduced canal tolls, scarcely maintains the position of a dozen years ago. Our grain production increases, but our export does not increase proportionately. Half of the grain trade already goes to Montreal, and the projected improvements in the St. Lawrence canals will draw still more of it to that port. These figures demand the earnest attention of our political economists. The free traders will say, "I told you so." The protectionists will retort that we have meantime been reducing the tariff.

Prof. Pepper, who invented the celebrated optical delusion of "Pepper's Ghost," is lecturing in England on popular science. He is said to imitate accurately all the principal feats of the spiritualists. Tables dance and violins float in the air at command.

The Director General of the German Postoffice refuses to employ women, on the grounds that "such is their curiosity that the secresy of letters would cease to be respected."

A Wife and an Officer Assaulted.

Yesterday afternoon a man named John McDonough was engaged in the pleasant pastime of beating his wife, when an old lady interfered to stop him. McDonough turned upon the old lady and knocked her down. Officer John Mackrel happened along opportunely, and attempted to arrest the wife-beater. He resisted, however, and drawing a poker bent it over the officers head. The latter retaliated with his mace, and subduing his prisoner, brought him and the poker to the Central Station-house, where McDonough and his headache were locked up for a hearing to-day.

CATHERINE KERR, proprietress of a boarding house in the Diamond, made an information yesterday, before Alderman McMasters, charging "Big" Scott with false pretenses. She says he obtained board to the amount of ten dollars, by falsely representing that he was employed by a firm of bricklayers in Allegheny, who owed him a large sum of money. A warrant was issued.

THE WESTERN UNIVERSITY.

The Class Day Exercises—Interesting Performances.

The class day exercises of the class of '72 of the Western University took place yesterday afternoon, in the hall of the institution. There was a large attendance, and the exercises were of an interesting character.

At two o'clock the graduating class, thirteen in number, wearing the class day gowns and plug hats, entered the hall, amidst the applause of their comrades. After being seated upon the stage the President of the class announced that the first performance of the day would be a history of the great lights around him, by his worthy friend, Mr. John Milton Duff.

Mr. Duff appeared amidst rounds of applause. The history was brim full of wit and humor. He gave a detail of the antics and characteristics of the class. The next was an address to the faculty by Mr. J. P. Reed, in which he consoled the faculty upon the loss of their most "brilliant" students, the class of '72. Then followed an address to the Junior class by Mr. D. D. Dickey, in which he endeavored, in a very pleasing manner, to impress upon their minds the necessity of their following the example of the class of '72.

After him the "Prophet" of the class, Mr. T. D. Carnahan delivered a witty and pleasing prophecy of the members of the class. Then came the poem of Mr. D. W. Jones, who has already attained some notoriety as an amateur in his line. At this juncture, four of the class disappeared from the stage and soon returned bearing a rude bier containing a bowl and spoon of huge size, which was presented to the Junior class by M. O. S. Richardson, in a neat and humorous speech. Mr. Rogers of the Junior class received the present on behalf of the class in an appropriate address, in which he extended the hearty thanks of the class of '71 to that of '72 for choosing them as their nurses. After this the class ode, composed by Mr. D. W. Jones, was sung, and the audience dispersed, apparently well pleased with the afternoon's entertainment.

COURT PROCEEDINGS.

Criminal Court—Judge Collier.

LIQUOR CASES DISPOSED OF.

Stephen England was indicted for selling liquor to Wm. W. Cupps and Horatio Kleinfelter, minors. Having plead guilty on two other charges of selling liquor to minors, a nol. pros. was allowed to be entered in these cases. Sentence in the other cases deferred.

Bridget Tarp, of Chartiers township, plead guilty to illegal liquor selling, Moses Dunlavy, prosecutor.

W. H. Corless, of the Twelfth ward, was indicted on two charges of illegal liquor selling, Richard Salts, prosecutor. A license having been granted to the defendant, who neglected to take out his certificate, a nol. pros. was allowed on payment of costs.

Peter Kelley, of the First ward, Pittsburgh, plead guilty to illegal liquor selling, Matthew Keep, prosecutor. Fined $50 and costs.

ASSAULTS AND BATTERIES.

John Frank, charged with assault and battery on Andrew Becker, was acquitted, prosecutor to pay costs.

Patrick Freeman was convicted of assault and battery on Bridget Freeman. Sentence deferred.

Charles Rink plead guilty to an assault and battery upon George Weber. Sentence deferred.

William Soles was acquitted on a charge of assault and battery on D. P. Marsh—the costs being equally divided between them.

The case of John Bender and Donan Schadle, charged with assault and battery on Gottelb Letsch, was allowed to be settled on payment of costs by the defendants.

SEDUCTION.

Robert Watt, indicted for seduction and fornication and bastardy, on oath of Mary W. Gray, of West Deer township, plead guilty to the lesser offense, and a nol. pros. was entered as to the seduction. Sentence deferred.

FORCIBLE ENTRY.

Evan Reese, charged with forcible entry and detainer, on oath of Frank Monday, was acquitted, but ordered to pay the costs.

THE CHAINED WIFE.

Arthur Martin, the unfortunate man indicted for aggravated assault and battery upon his wife, who was lately found at large upon the streets with a heavy chain upon her neck, was brought in for trial. The statement heretofore made by Martin, namely, that he was a hard-working, industrious man, and had been absolutely compelled to chain his wife in order to check her ungovernable appetite for liquor, was fully corroborated by the woman herself, who went upon the stand and testified that the whole fault was her own; that he was a kind husband, and had never beaten or abused her; and that when under the influence of liquor she scarcely knew what she was doing. She promised to let liquor alone hereafter and attend to her duties as wife and mother. The jury found a verdict of not guilty, and that the defendant pay the costs.

THE FIREMEN'S ASSAULT UPON MR. MOFFIT.

W. McClelland, Joseph McCartney, A. Schmidt, D. Williams, Henry Coats, S. McCutcheon and J. Lundy, members of the Fire Department, were arraigned on a charge of aggravated assault and battery on George Moffit. Moffit alleged that when defendants were returning from a fire, with an engine, they ordered him (he was driving a wagon) to get out of the way, and because he refused they fell upon and beat him severely. There was scarcely any proof against five of the defendants. The jury found a verdict of not guilty, but ordered W. McClelland and Joseph McCartney to pay the costs.

There appears to be no cessation in the attendance at the magical soirees of the renowned Signor Blitz. A telegram was received from Mr. Abt yesterday, stating that it would be impossible to appear in this city as intended.

Independence Day.

The committee having the matter in hand are making the most active preparations to make the proposed celebration of the completion of Penn avenue and our nation's birthday a grand success. All the committees are now earnestly at work, and have secured the co-operation of a majority of the associations in our city, together with large numbers of our merchants, manufacturers, and business men generally. Nearly all the brass bands of the county have been engaged; a car load of clams for the clam bake have been ordered; an ox has been purchased for roasting; there will be jumping matches, horse racing, a grand tournament, a fantastic parade, climbing of greased poles, pig, sack and hurdle races, a display by the military and a host of other attractions are promised such as Pittsburgh has never known before. The arrangements are in the hands of competent and reliable gentlemen who are not backward in assuring the people of Pittsburgh, Allegheny and the surrounding country that the carnival will eclipse anything of the kind ever attempted in Western Pennsylvania if not in the State. Let the gentlemen of the several committees perform faithfully the duties devolving on them and the coming day will long be remembered by our people.

Agricultural and Mechanical.

Yesterday the Allegheny County Agricultural and Mechanical Association held a regular meeting.

The following officers were elected to serve the ensuing year: President, John E. Parke, Jr.; Vice President, John Young, Jr.; Recording Secretary, George I. Whitney; Corresponding Secretary, Mosses Chess; Treasurer, W. W. Patrick, Librarian, Albert Bennet; Managers, James Kelly, Wm. O. Reed, Jas. B. Lyon, Alex. Speer, Wm. A. Herron, James Hall, J. H. Jones, W. A. Herriott, and R. Chalfant.

A communication was read from Mr. Kelly, of Wilkinsburg, offering to donote thirty acres of ground for a mechanical asylum for boys, to be managed by the Association.

The offer was accepted, and Mr. Patrick, on behalf of the Association, paid a high tribute to the generosity of the donor.

The meeting then adjourned.

The Mutton Policemen.

The two policemen who were discharged by Mayor Blackmore for capturing a quarter of lamb, from the front of a butcher's shop, were yesterday accused before Alderman O'Donnell of false arrest and assault and battery by John Mehan, a resident of Spring alley. It was alleged that Mehan's family and the family of a man named Thomas Kendrick occupied the same house, but sometimes quarreled. The parties had some legal difficulties, one of the Mehan's being charged with disorderly conduct by one of the Kendrick's. The case was dismissed, however, the prosecutor failing to appear. Subsequently, it is alleged, Mrs. Kendrick renewed the suit befor Alderman Strain, and the defendant was fined twenty-five dollars and costs. Further it is alleged that the officers, Rupert and Welsh by name, came to the mutual residence of the litigants and seized Mehan and took him to the lock-up, where he was kept for the night and fined in the morning for drunkenness. The deponent alleges that the entire proceeding has been unlawful, and that at a proper time he will so prove. A warrant for Rupert and one for Welsh have been issued.

Death of a Prisoner.

John Kaherwitz, a German brewer, was committed to jail, on Saturday last, on a charge of assault and battery preferred by his wife. He had been drinking to excess for some time, and when his accustomed supplies of stimulants were cut off he was threatened with delirium tremens. On Tuesday he was under medical treatment, and was tended by two other prisoners in the same cell. Yesterday morning at two o'clock his cell mates found him dead, his limbs contracted, his features distorted, and his face terribly discolored, indicating that he had died in great agony. The physician stated that he died from congestion of the brain, superinduced by alcoholic stimulants. He was thirty-five years of age, and leaves a wife and children. An inquest was held, and a verdict rendered in accordance with the facts stated.

Accidents.

Yesterday afternoon, while a number of boys were engaged in playing base ball on the circus grounds in East Birmingham, the boy holding the bat, in striking at a ball, left it slip out of his hands, when it struck a boy named Arthur Wilson on the head inflicting severe injuries. His injuries were dressed by Dr. O'Brien. The lad resides in Ormsby borough.

A man named Michael Donavan, employed in erecting the round house of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad, fell from a scaffold and had his shoulder blade dislocated. Dr. Stuart attended him.

Runaways.

Last evening two horses attached to a spring wagon ran off on Penn avenue. After they had proceeded only a short distance a man named Jacob Heidel, a resident of Paris, this State, attempted to stop them in their course, but was thrown down and trampled upon by the horses, receiving severe injuries. A physician was summoned, who attended his injuries.

A horse attached to a milk wagon started off last evening at the corner of Washington and Twelfth streets, Birmingham, while the driver was in a saloon. A man named Wm. Wilson, while attempting to stop them was struck by the tongue of the wagon and severely injured.

The Smith Zouaves.

Last night Co. K. of the Fourteenth Regiment N. G. P. paid a visit to the residence of that estimable gentleman Col. J. H. Stewart and were elegantly entertained. The company was preceded by a brass band and the Zouaves turned out fifty-five uniformed members under command of Capt. Barr. The occasion was a highly enjoyable one.

Another side of the story may be developed at the hearing which will come off to-day.

THIS is the time for publishing the various cures of hydrophobia, but a catalogue of all of them would be too much for the crowded state of our columns. When a patient is seized with this disease: 1. Inject morphine under the skin. 2. Give half a dram of powdered castor internally. 3. Administer small quantities of chloroform by inhalation. 4. Wrap the patient in blankets saturated with a warm solution of nitrate of ammonia. 5. Apply oil of juniper externally. 9. Administer vapor baths. 7. Put the patient upon a diet of raw onions. 8. Gross stated before Mayor Callow yesterday that his adopted daughter, Kate Roth, a girl fourteen years of age, had eloped from his house on Beaver avenue, Allegheny, last Sunday, and was married by Alderman Harrington to his brother, Einehart Gross, a young man aged twenty-one years. Mr. Gross spoke very broken English, and the Mayor understood that he was the father of the girl, and that she had been married by the Alderman without first getting the consent of her parents, and also had been married to her uncle. A warrant was issued for the young pair, and they were arrested at Wood's run. Last evening a hearing was had, when it was ascertained that Mr. Gross was not the father of the girl, but only her guardian, and that he had brought her from Germany. Her parents had not emigrated to this country. After this fact was elicited, the parties were remanded to the lock-up, and the Mayor will investigate the case further to-day.

From the Earliest Ages

Scrofula has been the bane and, as it were, the curse of mankind. In those days the disease was called Leprosy, but later it got the title of King's Evil, and still later it was called Scrofula, which is a term given to a mild form, or where the disease descends from one generation to another. Moses, in the 13th chapter of Leviticus, lays down very explicit rules for distinguishing between those spots which are proofs of the actual existence of Leprosy, and those spots which arise from other impurities of the blood, so terrible and loathsome that had it been considered then that a person known to be infected with it would not be allowed to mix with society. The Jews regarded it as a divine infliction, and believed there was no cure for it. It was then the sins of youth or a deviation from the paths of virtue were punished as long as life lasted. Happily in our day, the science of medicine has been developed, the great store-house of Nature furnishes a remedy, the disease is stripped of its terror by the use of the SAMARITAN'S ROOT AND HERB JUICES, and the victim of Scrofula, Ulcers, Sores, Pimples, Blotches, Tetter, &c., can be restored to sound health in a few weeks. That there are thousands now whose conditions are as bad as were those of the dark ages we are well aware. Many now fail to find a cure as well as they did then. To all such the Samaritan's Root and Herb Juices will prove a happy boon, eradicating all impurities from the blood, and making the complexion bright and healthy. A few bottles will remove pimples or blotches, thereby doing away with cosmetics and powders. ROOT AND HERB JUICES, $1 25 per bottle. Sent by Express to any address.

1 ACRE LOTS,
3 ACRE LOTS,
5 ACRE LOTS,
AT Noblestown,
ON THE
PAN HANDLE RAILROAD,
AT AUCTION.
ON THURSDAY, JUNE 27,
AT 10 O'CLOCK,

On the Premises, will be sold in Plots of 1 to 10 Acres each, the Beautiful Tract of 140 Acres, known as the Hoffman Farm, at Noblestown, twelve miles from Pittsburgh, on the Panhandle Railroad. The following reasons are given why intending buyers of Lots should give this sale their special attention:

1. You can buy a Homestead by the Acre, cheaper than you can buy the small lots offering on the outskirts of the cities and along the lines of street and other steam railways.
2. The Railway facilities are good and rapidly improving, so that this point will soon possess equal advantages with any other.
3. An Acre, two Acre or five Acre Lot affords some opportunity to create a desirable Homestead. You can have a Garden, Orchard, Pasture and other auxiliaries to pleasure and comfort.
4. There are good, rich Soil, Coal, good Spring Water, Schools, Churches, Stores, and just as lovely scenery as is to be found in Allegheny county.
5. The entire property being sold in large tracts, insures a better class of society and improvement, and consequently a more rapid and substantial increase in value.

If you have the least notion of buying a large Lot of Ground, go to the sale. If you wish to emancipate yourself from the close confinement of the crowded cities and give full scope to your wife and children in the pure exhilarating atmosphere of the country, go to this sale.

It will pay you to go, whether you buy or not. All respectable persons are invited to go by a Free Train, leaving Union Depot on THURSDAY MORNING, at 9:30, stopping at Birmingham only. Ample provision will be made for the comfort of all.

Terms—Fourth Cash, balance in Four Years.
